12 THE COURT: All right. Good morning, everyone.
13 Please be seated. All right. Hold on. Let me just start 14 by reminding everyone that there is no recording of these 15 proceedings that is permitted. For those of you in the 16 back, you are certainly permitted to watch, but we will not 17 have any disruptions. Any disruption or attempt to disrupt 18 will result in the Court's security personnel or the U.S.
19 Marshals escorting you out.

20 All right. With that.

21 MR. WISE: Good morning, Your Honor. Leo Wise, 22 Derek Hines, and Benjamin Wallace on behalf of the United 23 States. Now is the time the Court has set for an initial 24 appearance on the criminal information filed in the United 25 States versus Robert Hunter Biden, 23-cr-61-MN charging the 3

1 Defendant with a firearm offense, and for the entry of a 2 guilty plea to the criminal information filed in the 3 separate matter, United States versus Robert Hunter Biden, 4 23-mj-274-MN, charging the Defendant with two counts of 5 failure to pay taxes. The parties are ready to proceed. I 6 ask permission to pass up an executed version of the plea 7 agreement in the tax case at this time.

8 THE COURT: You may. Thank you.

9 MR. WISE: And my understanding, Your Honor, is 10 that we're going — Your Honor first will conduct the 11 initial appearance on the firearm charge and then turn to 12 the plea hearing on the tax charge.

13 THE COURT: No. Hold on. Let me just take a 14 look. All right.

15 Good morning, Mr. Clark, Mr. Biden.

16 MR. CLARK: Good morning, Your Honor.

17 THE COURT: Just so that we don't have you
18 feeling that you need to pop up and down, I am fine if you 19 want to when I'm asking questions stay seated so you don't 20 have to just keep popping up.

21 MR. CLARK: We won't do it any other time.
 22 THE COURT: All right. Thank you. Okay. So we 23 do have two cases here, one is a criminal action based on a 24 felony information related to a gun charge, and the other is 25 Criminal Action 23-274 based on the misdemeanor involving

1 the tax charges. This is the Defendant's first appearance.
 2 I had planned to conduct the initial appearance on the two 3 cases at the same time. Is there any objection to that?

4 MR. WISE: None, Your Honor. Thank you.

5 MR. CLARK: None, Your Honor.

6 THE COURT: I thought it might be more efficient 7 and save some time.

8 THE COURT: Mr. Biden, in Criminal Action 23-61, 9 the United States Attorney for the District of Delaware has 10 filed a felony information which charges you with possession 11 of a firearm by a person who is an unlawful user of or 12 addicted to a controlled substance in violation of 18 United 13 States Code Sections 922(g)(3) and 924(a)(2).

14 And in Criminal Action 23-274, the United States
 15 Attorney for the District of Delaware has filed a 16 misdemeanor information which charges you with two counts of 17 willful failure to pay tax in violation of 26 United States 18 Code Section 7203. Do you understand that those are the 19 charges that are pending here?

20 THE DEFENDANT: Yes, Your Honor.

21 THE COURT: Do you understand that the maximum 22 penalties for the gun charge are ten years of imprisonment, 23 a fine of $250,000, three years of supervised release, and a 24 special assessment of $100?

25 THE DEFENDANT: Yes, Your Honor.

5

1 THE COURT: And do you understand that the 2 maximum penalties for each of Counts I and II of the tax 3 case are twelve months of imprisonment, a $100,000 fine or 4 twice the gross gain or loss from the offense, whichever is 5 greater, one year of supervised release, restitution and a 6 $25 special assessment as well as costs of prosecution?

7 THE DEFENDANT: Yes, Your Honor.

8 THE COURT: All right. Now, Mr. Biden, you have 9 the right to be represented by an attorney in these matters, 10 that means if you can afford to, you can hire an attorney of 11 your own choice. If you can't afford to, you may ask the 12 court to appointment an attorney to represent you. Do you 13 understand that?

14 THE DEFENDANT: Yes, Your Honor.

15 THE COURT: All right. You are presently 16 represented by Mr. Clark. Do you wish to continue that 17 representation?

18 THE DEFENDANT: Yes, Your Honor.

19 THE COURT: All right. Now, Mr. Biden, you have 20 the right to a preliminary hearing in these cases. At that 21 hearing, the government would have to produce sufficient 22 evidence to show that it has probable cause to believe that 23 you committed the crimes with which you are being charged.
 24 At that hearing you would have the right to introduce 25 evidence and to cross-examine any adverse witnesses who

6

1 would be testifying against you. Do you understand that?

2 THE DEFENDANT: Yes, Your Honor.

3 THE COURT: All right. Now, I understand that 4 you intend to plead guilty to the tax charges. Do I have 5 that right?

6 THE DEFENDANT: Yes, Your Honor.

7 THE COURT: All right. Do you understand that 8 if you plead guilty to those charges, you will be waiving 9 your right to a preliminary hearing?

10 THE DEFENDANT: Yes, Your Honor.

11 THE COURT: I also understand that the plan for 12 the gun charge is a Diversion Agreement. Counsel, do we 13 need to do anything regarding a preliminary hearing at this 14 point in light of the planned Diversion Agreement?

15 MR. WISE: No, Your Honor.

16 MR. CLARK: We're in agreement with that, Your 17 Honor.

18 THE COURT: All right. Mr. Biden, you are not 19 required to make any statements to the authorities. If you 20 had already made statements to the authorities, you may stop 21 and not make any more. If you start to make a statement and 22 you change your mind, you may stop at any time. And any 23 statement that you do make may be used against you. Do you 24 understand all of that?

25 THE DEFENDANT: Yes, Your Honor.

1 THE COURT: All right. Now, pursuant to the Due
2 Process Act, I confirm that the government has a continuing 3 obligation pursuant to Brady v. Maryland and its progeny to 4 produce all exculpatory evidence and I order that it do so 5 at the appropriate time. The consequences for violating a 6 Brady obligation and/or my order could include, but are not 7 limited to, contempt proceedings, sanctions, referral to 8 disciplinary counsel, adverse jury instructions, exclusion 9 of evidence and dismissal of the charges. Does the 10 government understand that?

11 MR. WISE: Yes, Your Honor.

12 THE COURT: Has all Brady material been 13 produced?

14 MR. WISE: Yes, Your Honor.

15 THE COURT: Mr. Clark, any concerns about that?

16 MR. CLARK: None whatsoever, Your Honor.

17 THE COURT: Thank you.

18 Pretrial release, what is the government's 19 position?

20 MR. WISE: The conditions that have been 21 recommended we agree with.

22 THE COURT: Any concerns about that, Mr. Clark?

23 MR. CLARK: No, Your Honor, we're in accordance.

24 THE COURT: You can't help yourself, you're just 25 going to keep jumping up.

8

1 MR. CLARK: I was taught at a hard school.

2 THE COURT: I know. I couldn't even think if I 3 wasn't standing.

4 I understand that pretrial release -- I agree 5 that pretrial release is appropriate subject to the 6 following conditions which I will read into the record. The 7 Defendant must not violate federal, state, or local law 8 while on release.

9 The Defendant must cooperate in the collection
10 of a DNA sample if it is authorized by 34 United States Code 11 Section 40702.

12 The Defendant must advise the court or the 13 pretrial services officer or some supervising officer in 14 writing before making any change in residence or telephone 15 number.

16 The Defendant must appear in court as required 17 and if convicted must surrender as directed to serve a 18 sentence that the Court may impose.

19 I also impose the following additional 20 conditions.

21 Sir, you must submit to supervision by and 22 report to supervision to the probation office in the 23 district in which you are residing. You must continue or 24 actively seek employment. You must communicate in writing 25 all international travel plans and provide supporting

9

1 documentation if requested to both the District of Delaware
2 and the district in which you are residing. You must not 3 possess a firearm, destructive device or other weapon. You
4 must not use alcohol. You must not use or unlawfully 5 possess a narcotic drug or other controlled substance 6 defined in 21 United States Code, Section 802, unless 7 prescribed by a licensed medical practitioner. I will 8 clarify, however, that marijuana is not legal under federal 9 law and you are prohibited from using marijuana regardless

10 of whether it is legal or not in the state in which you are 11 or it is prescribed by a medical practitioner.

12 You must submit to testing for a prohibited 13 substance if required by the pretrial services officer or 14 supervising officer. Testing may be done with random 15 frequency and may include urine testing, the wearing of a 16 sweat patch, remote alcohol testing system and/or any form 17 of prohibited substance screening or testing. You must not 18 obstruct, attempt to obstruct or tamper with the efficiency 19 or accuracy of prohibited substance screening or testing.

20 Just give me a minute here.

21 And you must participate in a program of 22 inpatient or outpatient substance abuse, therapy, or 23 counseling if directed by the pretrial services officer or 24 the supervising officer. Do you understand those 25 conditions, sir?

10

1 THE DEFENDANT: Yes, Your Honor.

2 THE COURT: All right. Any objection or 3 comments on the conditions imposed?

4 MR. CLARK: None from the defense, Your Honor.

5 MR. WISE: Nor from the United States, Your 6 Honor.

7 THE COURT: All right. Mr. Biden, violating any 8 of the conditions of release may result in the immediate 9 issuance of a warrant for your arrest, revocation of your 10 release, an order for detention, forfeiture of any bond or 11 prosecution for contempt of court, and it could result in 12 imprisonment, a fine, or both. Do you understand that?

13 THE DEFENDANT: Yes, Your Honor.

14 THE COURT: Anything I left out or anything I 15 need to address with respect to the initial appearances?

16 MR. WISE: Not from the United States, Your 17 Honor.

18 MR. CLARK: No, Your Honor.

19 THE COURT: Now, we have two cases and two 20 agreements and I understand that the Diversion Agreement is 21 not something that is typically before the Court, but you 22 all did send it to me so I do want to talk about that a 23 little bit. There are some provisions in those agreements 24 that are not standard and are different from what I normally 25 see, so I think we need to walk through these documents and 11

1 get some understanding of what is being proposed so that I 2 can give due consideration to the determination that you all 3 are asking me to make. So I want to start with Criminal 4 Action 23-274 involving the tax charges.

5 All right. Now, Mr. Biden, you told me that you 6 intend to enter a plea of guilty in those cases, correct?

7 THE DEFENDANT: Yes, Your Honor.

8 THE COURT: So it is my responsibility to make 9 sure that that plea is a voluntary and knowing plea. And in 10 order to do that, I first need to ask you a series of 11 questions. Before I ask you those questions, I am going to 12 have you placed under oath to answer those questions 13 truthfully. And it's important that you do answer those 14 questions truthfully because if you don't, any false answers 15 may be used against you in a separate prosecution for 16 perjury. Do you understand that?

17 THE DEFENDANT: Yes, Your Honor.

18 THE COURT: All right. Mr. Buckson, will you
19 please swear in the Defendant.

20 COURT CLERK: Will you please rise and raise 21 your right hand. Please state and spell your full name for 22 the record.

23 THE DEFENDANT: Robert Hunter Biden.

24 R-O-B-E-R-T, H-U-N-T-E-R, B-I-D-E-N.

25 ROBERT HUNTER BIDEN, was duly sworn under oath.

12

1 THE COURT: Thank you, sir. You may be seated.

2 All right. Now, sir, if at any time you want to confer with 3 your counsel when I'm asking you questions, you may, just 4 let me know. All right?

 5 THE DEFENDANT: Thank you, Your Honor.
 6 THE COURT: How old are you?
 7 THE DEFENDANT: Fifty-three years old, Your
 8 Honor.
 9 THE COURT: How far did you go in school?
 10 THE DEFENDANT: Law school, Your Honor.
 11 THE COURT: When did you graduate from Law 12 school?
 13 THE DEFENDANT: 1996.
 14 THE COURT: You're member of the bar?
 15 THE DEFENDANT: Yes, Your Honor.
 16 THE COURT: Any particular?
 17 THE DEFENDANT: District of Columbia and 18 Connecticut, Your Honor.
 19 THE COURT: Thank you. And you speak and 20 understand English?
 21 THE DEFENDANT: Yes, Your Honor.
 22 THE COURT: Are you currently or have you 23 recently been under the care of a physician or psychiatrist?
 24 THE DEFENDANT: No, Your Honor.
 25 THE COURT: Have you ever been hospitalized or

1 treated for any mental illness or addiction to narcotic
 2 drugs of any kind?
 3 THE DEFENDANT: I have attended treatment
 4 facilities for addiction, Your Honor.
 5 THE COURT: Okay. So that was included in my 6 question which is treatment for addiction to drugs.
 7 THE DEFENDANT: Yes, Your Honor.
 8 THE COURT: So I need you to tell me about that.
 9 How many times have you, to the best of your recollection, 10 been treated whether inpatient or outpatient?
 11 THE DEFENDANT: Beginning in 2003 with the 12 inpatient, Your Honor, I have been to I believe close to six 13 inpatient over the course of twenty years.
 14 THE COURT: All right.
 15 THE DEFENDANT: And I have also been in 16 outpatient programs also during that time.
 17 MR. CLARK: Just to be clear, it's numerous,
 18 Your Honor.
 19 THE COURT: I'm not going to walk through every 20 single one, but I just want to make sure I have some 21 understanding.
 22 All right. Now, sir, each time that you were 23 treated in an inpatient facility, what was it for?
 24 THE DEFENDANT: For addiction to alcohol
 25 primarily originally, Your Honor.

1 THE COURT: Okay. And have you ever been in an 2 inpatient treatment program where you were treated for 3 something else other than alcoholism?
 4 THE DEFENDANT: Drugs, also, Your Honor.
 5 THE COURT: Okay. And I'm just not sure how 6 these programs work. I'm sorry. Is it for any particular 7 drug that you're treated or is it just sort of --
 8 THE DEFENDANT: No.
 9 THE COURT: Everything.
 10 THE DEFENDANT: Everything, Your Honor.
 11 THE COURT: Okay. And when was the most recent 12 time that you were in treatment? Well, are you currently in 13 treatment for your alcohol or drug issues?
 14 THE DEFENDANT: No, I'm not, Your Honor.
 15 THE COURT: When was the last time that you were 16 in treatment?
 17 THE DEFENDANT: I believe the fall of 2018.
 18 MR. CLARK: I think that's right, Your Honor.
 19 THE COURT: Okay.
 20 THE DEFENDANT: Your Honor, sorry.
 21 THE COURT: That's okay. So the fall of 2018, 22 and was that inpatient or outpatient?
 23 THE DEFENDANT: Inpatient, and then also 24 outpatient.
 25 THE COURT: Okay. And when you -- did you

15

1 complete that program or did you leave that program prior to 2 completion?

3 THE DEFENDANT: I completed that program, the 4 inpatient portion of it, Your Honor.

5 THE COURT: Okay. And after you completed that 6 program, did you then continue to use drugs for some period 7 of time?

8 THE DEFENDANT: I did, Your Honor.

9 THE COURT: All right. So when was the last 10 time -- so the fall of 2018 was the last time that you 11 received any treatment, right?

12 THE DEFENDANT: Yes, Your Honor.

13 THE COURT: Okay. When was the last time that 14 you used, ingested, or were under the influence of any drug, 15 legal or illegal medication or alcoholic beverage of any 16 kind?

17 THE DEFENDANT: June of 2019, Your Honor.

18 THE COURT: All right. And so just to be clear, 19 you are not presently under the influence of any drug, legal 20 or illegal, medication or alcoholic beverage of any kind, is 21 that correct?

22 THE DEFENDANT: No, Your Honor.

23 THE COURT: Well, let's just be clear because, 24 you know, people might look at this transcript. I said is 25 that correct and you said no.

1 THE DEFENDANT: I'm sorry, yes, Your Honor, 2 excuse me.

3 THE COURT: And sir, do you understand what's 4 going on and why we're here today?

5 THE DEFENDANT: Yes, I do understand.

6 THE COURT: Counsel, do you have any doubt as to 7 your client's competence?

8 MR. CLARK: None whatsoever.

9 THE COURT: Any concerns from the government?

10 MR. WISE: No, Your Honor.

11 THE COURT: Based on the information that I 12 received, Mr. Biden, I find that you are competent and 13 capable of proceeding here today.

14 So now I want to talk about the misdemeanor 15 information which contains the tax charges that you are 16 pleading guilty to. Have you received a copy of the 17 information pending against you?

18 THE DEFENDANT: Yes, Your Honor.

19 THE COURT: Have you fully discussed those 20 charges and the case in general with Mr. Clark?

21 THE DEFENDANT: Yes, Your Honor.

22 THE COURT: Are you fully satisfied with the 23 counsel, representation, and advice you received from him in 24 this case?

25 THE DEFENDANT: Yes, Your Honor.

1 THE COURT: You have the right to have the 2 information read out loud at this hearing, but you can also 3 waive that reading. Would you like me to ask the government 4 to read it or do you waive that?

5 THE DEFENDANT: I waive that, Your Honor.

6 THE COURT: Okay. Next, the Memorandum of Plea
7 Agreement which was handed up to me. First, let me ask 8 counsel, what provision of the rules is this plea agreement 9 being presented under?

10 MR. WISE: It's presented under Rule
11 11(c)(1)(B), Your Honor, of the Federal Rules of Criminal 12 Procedure.

13 THE COURT: All right. And so just so we're 14 clear, and Mr. Clark, you agree with that?

15 MR. CLARK: I do, Your Honor.

16 THE COURT: All right. Just so we're clear, 17 this is not a plea under Rule 11(c)(1)(C), what is often 18 called a C plea which binds me to impose a specific sentence 19 if I accept the plea, is that correct?

20 MR. WISE: It is, Your Honor.

21 MR. CLARK: We agree, Your Honor.
 22 THE COURT: So in your view, what is my role 23 here under Rule 11(c)(1)(B)?
 24 MR. WISE: Your Honor has two roles as Your 25 Honor has already begun to determine that the plea is 18

1 knowing and voluntary under Rule 11(B), and to apprise the 2 Defendant that you are not bound by the recommendation of 3 the United States in this case pursuant to Rule 11(c)(3)(B).
 4 THE COURT: That's it?
 5 MR. WISE: That's it.
 6 THE COURT: All right. Now, is it my role to 7 accept or reject this plea?
 8 MR. WISE: It is not, Your Honor.
 9 THE COURT: Now, let me just ask you this.
 10 Would my role be different if this were a plea under Rule 11 11(c)(1)(A)?
 12 MR. WISE: Yes, Your Honor, it would.
 13 THE COURT: How would you say it's different?
 14 MR. WISE: Both Rule 11(c)(1)(A) pleas and 15 11(c)(1)(C) pleas require the Court to either accept, reject 16 or defer on the plea agreement itself, not on the plea which 17 is governed by like I said a separate provision of the rule 18 which is 11(B), but in terms of the Court's role vis-a-vis 19 the agreement is to accept, reject or defer.
 20 THE COURT: All right. And I do want to talk 21 about that a little bit further, but when we talk about the 22 plea, but you can sit down for now.
 23 Now, wait, let me ask you this. If it's a 24 11(c)(1)(A) plea, what is your understanding of the factors 25 that I need to look at?

19

1 MR. WISE: So the rule itself is silent on the 2 factors, but the case law suggest that the factors -- that 3 the rejecting or accepting the plea would relate to the 4 Court's traditional role at sentencing, so if, for instance, 5 the Court thought that the charge bargain which is what 6 11(c)(1)(A) does, if the Court thought the charge bargain
 7 did not adequately reflect the seriousness of the offense
 8 which would affect the Court's ability to sentence, then 9 there is case law that says under those circumstances the 10 Court could reject the charge bargain that was contained in 11 the (c)(1)(A) plea.
 12 THE COURT: When you say the charge bargain, you 13 mean the bargain by which the Defendant pleads guilty and 14 the government agrees not to bring other charges or to drop 15 charges that have already been brought?
 16 MR. WISE: Exactly, Your Honor.
 17 THE COURT: All right. And in looking at an 18 11(c)(1)(A) plea, would I need to consider or are those 19 factors that you just sort of talked about, is that usually 20 referred to as in the interest of justice?
 21 MR. WISE: They are, Your Honor.
 22 THE COURT: All right. You can be seated.
 23 So yesterday I received from third parties a 24 letter with almost 900 pages of attachments in one case, and 25 a memorandum of law with hundreds of more pages of exhibits

1 in the other. I have not had time to review those 2 submissions. I understand that there is some objection to 3 them and I will give the Defendant and the government if it 4 wishes an opportunity to respond to those if they choose.
 5 But even though I have not been able to review the 6 third-party submissions, I do understand that they request 7 that I reject the plea agreement based on information that 8 the filers submit cast doubt on the investigation performed 9 or the charges brought or both.
 10 So let me ask you this. If I were to think that 11 the facts presented in those submissions or even the facts 12 that have been presented to me in this case and the attached 13 agreements suggest that the investigation was lacking or 14 that more serious charges should have been brought, is it

15 within my power to ask or direct the United States Attorney 16 or the Attorney General of the United States to redo the 17 investigation or bring different or more serious charges?

18 MR. WISE: I don't believe so, Your Honor, no.

19 MR. CLARK: We agree, Your Honor, it would raise 20 obviously massive separation of powers questions if that was 21 to be taken.

22 THE COURT: Okay. And isn't that decision about 23 what charges to bring for the prosecutor as part of the 24 Executive Branch?

25 MR. WISE: It is, Your Honor.

21

1 MR. CLARK: We concur, Your Honor.

2 THE COURT: All right. So if there were a 3 failure in the investigation or the charges brought were 4 inappropriate, how would that get addressed in our form of 5 government?

6 MR. WISE: Through the political process, Your 7 Honor.

8 MR. CLARK: In particular, Your Honor, the 9 Executive Branch is charged fully with investigating, making 10 prosecutorial discretion decisions, and indeed that's where 11 the term prosecutorial discretion comes from, it is vested 12 in the Executive Branch.

13 THE COURT: All right. Okay. Let's walk 14 through some of the provisions of the plea, Memorandum of 15 Plea Agreement. Do you have it in front of you, sir?

16 THE DEFENDANT: Yes, Your Honor.

17 THE COURT: It's six pages long and has an 18 attached Exhibit 1 which is four pages long as well as a 19 sealed attachment referenced as Attachment A. Attachment A 20 is a document that is not public, but it is a standard 21 document that is filed in all cases in this district and is 22 not filed only in connection with this case. The Memorandum 23 of Plea Agreement has three signatures on the final page.
24 Is one of those signatures yours?

25 THE DEFENDANT: Yes, Your Honor.

22

1 THE COURT: Okay. And when did you sign it?

2 THE DEFENDANT: This morning, Your Honor.

3 THE COURT: And before you signed it, did you 4 have an opportunity to read it and discuss it with your 5 attorney?

6 THE DEFENDANT: I did, Your Honor.

7 THE COURT: Are you satisfied with the advice
8 and counsel you received regarding the plea agreement.

9 THE DEFENDANT: I am, Your Honor.

10 THE COURT: All right. Let's have a side-bar up 11 here.

12 (Sealed Attachment A side-bar discussion under 13 separate cover.)

14 (End of sealed Attachment A discussion.)

15 THE COURT: All right. Let's go back on the 16 unsealed portion of the record.

17 So I'm now going to ask the prosecutor to read 18 the essential terms of the plea agreement. Sir, I'll ask 19 you to listen carefully to what he says because when he's 20 finished, I'm going to ask you if the agreement as recited 21 by him reflects the deal that you believe you reached with 22 the government.

23 Mr. Wise.

24 MR. WISE: Thank you, Your Honor.

25 Paragraph 1 provides that the Defendant waives

1 any challenge to the information based on venue and agrees 2 to plead guilty in the United States District Court for the 3 District of Delaware to Counts I and II of the information 4 which charge him with willful failure to pay tax in 5 violation of Title 26 United States Code Section 7203.

6 Paragraph 2 describes how the Defendant
7 understands that the maximum penalties for each of Counts I
8 and II are as Your Honor previously indicated, twelve months 9 of imprisonment, a $100,000 fine or twice the gross gain or 10 loss from the offense, whichever is greater, one year of 11 supervised release, restitution and a $25 special assessment 12 per count and the cost of prosecution which the parties 13 stipulate is zero.

14 Paragraph 3 describes the essential elements 15 that the government would have to prove if the case went to 16 trial and those are one, that the Defendant had a duty to 17 pay tax. Two, that the tax was not paid at the time 18 required by law. And three, that the failure to pay was 19 willful. The Defendant knowingly and voluntarily and 20 intelligently admits his guilt to each of these elements and 21 further admits to the information contained in the statement 22 of facts which is attached to the memorandum as Exhibit 1.

23 Paragraph 4 provides that the Defendant is 24 pleading guilty to Counts I and II because he is in fact 25 guilty.

1 Paragraph 5 contains certain stipulations under 2 the sentencing guidelines. Paragraph 5A provides that the 3 amount of loss as to Counts I and II, so a combined loss is 4 no less than $1,199,524 and no greater than $1,593,329.

5 Subparagraph B provides that the conduct set 6 forth in the statement of facts which is Attachment A to the 7 Diversion Agreement filed, which will be filed today does 8 not constitute relevant conduct pursuant to United States 9 Sentencing Guideline 1(b)(1.3). Paragraph C provides that 10 provided that the United States does not subsequently learn 11 of conduct by the Defendant inconsistent with the acceptance 12 of responsibility, that it will not oppose a two level 13 decrease pursuant to U.S. Sentencing Guideline 3(e)(1.1)(a) 14 for acceptance. And further, that should it be determined 15 that the Defendant's offense level is 16 or greater prior to 16 the application of the two level reduction for acceptance 17 that the United States will move to reduce the sentence, the 18 guideline by one additional level pursuant to U.S.
 19 Sentencing Guideline 3(e)(1.1)(b) for a total reconduction 20 of three levels.

21 It is understood and agreed by the parties that 22 these stipulations are not binding upon either the probation 23 office or the Court.

24 Second, that the Court may make factual and 25 legal determinations that differ from these stipulations

1 that may result in an increase or decrease in the sentencing 2 guideline range and the sentence that may be imposed.

3 Paragraph 6 provides that for reasons to be 4 articulated at or near the time of sentencing, the United 5 States will recommend a sentence of probation.

6 Paragraph 7 provides that the United States
 7 retains the right to defend the rulings of the District 8 Court in any subsequent proceeding.

9 Paragraph 8 outlines at length the sentencing 10 procedure which I believe the Court will review with the 11 Defendant in more detail.

12 Paragraph 9 contains a broad appellant waiver 13 which I also understand the Court will review with the 14 Defendant in greater detail.

15 Paragraph 10 provides that the Defendant agrees 16 to pay a $50 special assessment at the day of sentencing.

17 Paragraph 11 provides that the memorandum 18 expressly incorporates Attachment A which is attached and 19 filed under seal and that the government as Your Honor has 20 said routinely files such an attachment even though it may 21 or may not continue additional terms. To the extent it 22 does, however, the parties acknowledge and agree to be bound 23 by it.

24 Paragraph 12 addresses restitution under the 25 Mandatory Victim Restitution Act. And the Defendant agrees

26

1 to the entry of the restitution order for the full amount of 2 the victims losses attributable to his activities as ordered 3 by the Court which is expected to be zero because the self

4 assessed tax due at the time of filing and associated 5 interest and penalties have been paid to the Internal 6 Revenue Service by a third party on behalf of the Defendant.
 7 However, the Defendant understands that an unanticipated 8 amount of a restitution order will not serve as grounds to 9 withdraw his guilty plea. The parties further understand 10 that should the Internal Revenue Service determine there are 11 additional taxes due and owing for the tax years 2014 12 through 2019, they are not subject to the terms of this 13 agreement and for the purposes of this memorandum the sole 14 victim of Counts I and II is the United States Treasury.

15 And finally paragraph 13 provides that it is 16 further agreed by the parties that the memorandum and 17 Exhibit A together with the sealed attachment supersedes all 18 prior promises, representations and statements of the 19 parties, that the memorandum may be modified only in writing 20 signed by all the parties and that any and all promises, 21 representations, and statements made prior to or after this 22 memorandum are null and void and have no affect whatsoever 23 unless they comport with the subsequent written 24 modifications and provisions of this paragraph.

25 THE COURT: Thank you. I did have a couple of

1 initial questions.

2 Paragraph 5A says that the amount of losses no 3 less than 1,100 -- well, actually before we ask that,
 4 because I'm going to ask how it relates to the facts, why
 5 don't you go through Exhibit 1 you referenced, why don't you 6 put Exhibit 1 on the record.

7 MR. WISE: Yes, Your Honor.

8 At all times relevant to the instant
 9 information, the Defendant, Robert Hunter Biden, hereafter
 10 Biden, was an attorney and businessman with lucrative 11 domestic and international business interests. From 2017 to 12 2019, he served on the board of a Ukrainian energy company 13 and a Chinese private equity fund. He further negotiated 14 and executed contracts for business and legal services that 15 paid millions of dollars of compensation to him and/or his 16 domestic corporations, Owasco, PC and Owasco, LLC. Through 17 at least early 2017, he also was employed by a prestigious 18 multi-national law firm in an "of counsel" capacity. For 19 this work, he earned substantial income, totaling more than 20 $2.3 million in 2017 and $2.1 million in 2018.

21 Biden also has a well-documented and 22 long-standing struggle with substance abuse. Following the 23 death of his brother in 2015, Biden relapsed and over time 24 progressed from alcohol to abusing illegal drugs, including 25 crack cocaine in 2016. This contributed to the collapse of 28

1 his marriage, with his divorce finalized in March 2017, as 2 well as the collapse of his most significant professional 3 relationship in Fall 2017. Nonetheless, in 2017, despite 4 his addiction, Biden successfully entered into business 5 ventures and landed legal clients, earning millions of 6 dollars. By his own telling in a memoir published in 2021, 7 Biden's substance abuse worsened in 2018, a year that 8 included a move to Los Angeles and what he has described as 9 a "spring and summer of nonstop debauchery." Even during 10 this period, however, Biden continued to earn money and 11 exercise control over his personal and corporate finances.

12 Federal income tax returns and payments are due 13 on or about April 15th of each year for the prior calendar
 14 year. Biden, like many other taxpayers, routinely requested 15 an automatic extension to file his returns, pushing the due 16 date for a tax return to on or about October 15th. An 17 extension of time to file a return, however, does not extend 18 the deadline for payment of taxes, which remain due on the 19 April filing date.

20 During calendar year 2017, Biden earned 21 substantial income, including: just under $1 million from a 22 company he formed with the CEO of a Chinese business 23 conglomerate; $666,666 from his domestic business interests; 24 approximately $664,000 from a Chinese infrastructure 25 investment company; $500,000 in director's fees from a

29

1 Ukrainian energy company; $70,000 relating to a Romanian 2 business; and $48,000 from the multi-national law firm.
3 Throughout tax year 2017, Biden worked with a DC 4 and Maryland based accountant to prepare his individual and 5 corporate tax returns. In 2018, this accountant (who died 6 in 2019) prepared Biden's 2017 corporate and individual 7 income tax returns and throughout the fall repeatedly 8 attempted to provide them to Biden for review and signature.
9 These efforts included directly contacting Biden, reaching 10 out to his administrative assistant, and sending copies to 11 his former business partner. The former business partner 12 reviewed the returns and sent several emails to Biden in 13 which he commented on their substance and reminded Biden of 14 his filing obligations. The former business partner left 15 the final returns for Biden at Biden's office. Despite 16 these actions, Biden neither signed nor submitted the 17 individual or corporate income tax returns to the Internal 18 Revenue Service.
19 Not only did the accountant timely prepare 20 Biden's individual and corporate tax returns, the accountant
21 repeatedly encouraged Biden to timely pay the taxes 22 associated with the 2017 tax returns. Beginning in 23 April 2018 and continuing into October 2018, the accountant 24 advised Biden to make his tax payments, noting approximately 25 $600,000 owed by Biden personally and an additional $204,000

30

1 owed by Owasco, PC. Biden told the accountant he could pay
2 $25,000 in April 2018 towards his taxes, but no such payment
3 was made to the Internal Revenue Service. His large tax 4 liability stemmed in part from the fact that over the course
5 of 2017, Biden began withdrawing substantial funds outside 6 of Owasco, PC's established payroll system, which had been 7 created, in part, to ensure that Biden had sufficient 8 withholdings to timely pay any outstanding tax liability.
9 The end of year liability should not have come as a 10 surprise. At the time of those withdrawals, Biden's 11 business partner advised him that these transfers, made 12 without withholding, would result in a significant tax 13 liability at year end.
14 Despite his large outstanding tax liability and 15 profligate spending, on or about April 17, 2018, the due 16 date for 2017 tax payments, Biden did, in fact, have the 17 funds available to pay his outstanding 2017 tax liability 18 for both his personal and corporate returns. On or about 19 March 22, 2018, Biden received a $1 million payment into his 20 Owasco, LLC bank account as payment for legal fees for 21 Patrick Ho, and $939,000 remained available as of tax day.
22 Over the next six months Biden would spend almost the 23 entirety of this balance on personal expenses, including 24 large cash withdrawals, transfers to his personal account, 25 travel, and entertainment.

1 Biden continued to earn handsomely and spend 2 wildly in 2018. He received a little over $2.6 million in 3 business and consulting fees from the company he formed with 4 the CEO of a Chinese business conglomerate and the Ukrainian 5 energy company. However, without the structure of a stable
6 business partner and still in the throes of addiction, Biden 7 essentially ignored his tax obligations, withholding only 8 approximately $38,465, less than six percent of the taxes 9 owed. Tax returns and filings for tax year 2018 were due on 10 April 15th, 2019. On that date, Biden traded emails with 11 his DC accountant and his attorney about seeking an 12 extension. The accountant advised Biden of his obligation 13 to make a tax payment on that date, irrespective of the 14 extension to file a return. Ultimately, the extension was 15 filed, making the return due on October 15, 2019. Biden, 16 however, paid nothing. As with tax year 2017, at the time 17 his 2018 tax payment was due, Biden continued to have 18 substantial income and the ability to pay his tax liability, 19 having received payments totaling approximately $758,000
20 during March and April 2019. By late May, Biden had spent

21 almost the entire sum on personal expenses, including large 22 cash withdrawals, payments to or on behalf of his children, 23 credit card balances, and car payments for his Porsche.

24 After numerous programs and trips to rehab, 25 Biden got sober in May 2019, the same month he married his 32

1 current wife. He has remained sober since. Biden remained 2 in California and spent much of 2019 painting and developing 3 plans for his memoir, which he began working on through the 4 fall and into the winter. During summer 2019, he was sued 5 in two different domestic-relations lawsuits, both seeking 6 payment of support obligations. He still did not, however, 7 make preparations to file or actually file either his 2018 8 individual or corporate income tax returns on or about 9 October 15, 2019, the extension due date.

10 In or around November 2019, Biden engaged a 11 California accountant to prepare his individual and 12 corporate income tax returns for 2017 and 2018. The 13 California accountant began gathering materials and started 14 preparing Biden's 2017 and 2018 returns in early 2020. By 15 that time, the domestic relations lawsuits had progressed, 16 and having failed to do so previously, Biden was under court 17 order to provide his tax returns or face potential sanctions 18 including imprisonment. On or about January 27, 2020, Biden 19 signed a representation letter for the California 20 accountants, averring that he was providing the accountants 21 with truthful and accurate information and acknowledging his 22 responsibility for the accuracy of those tax returns. Over 23 the days that followed, Biden participated in a series of 24 meetings with the California accountants and identified 25 business and personal expenses in connection with his tax

33

1 returns. During this process, Biden miscategorized certain 2 personal expenses as legitimate business expenses, resulting 3 in a reduction in his tax liability. At the same time, the 4 California accountants overreported Biden's income, which 5 partially offset this reduction.

6 Or on about February 18th, 2020, Biden filed his 7 individual and corporate income tax returns with the 8 Internal Revenue Service for tax years 2017 and 2018. On 9 his 2017 Form 1040, Biden reported $2,376,436 in total 10 income and a self-assessed tax due of $710,598, of which 11 $125,909 was timely paid, leaving a balance due and owing of 12 $581,713. On his 2017 Form 1120 for Owasco, PC, Biden 13 reported gross receipts of $2,698,841 and a self-assessed 14 tax due and owing of $13,630. On his 2018 Form 1040, Biden 15 reported $2,187,286 in total income and a self-assessed tax 16 of $659,366, of which $38,465 was timely paid, leaving a 17 balance due and owing of $620,901. No additional payments
18 were included at the time of filing. On his 2018 Form 1120
19 for Owasco, PC, Biden reported gross receipts of $2,659,014
20 and a self-assessed tax due and owing of $4,247.

21 Approximately a year-and-a-half later, on or 22 about October 18th, 2021, a third party paid the Internal 23 Revenue Service $955,800 to cover Biden's self-assessed
24 individual tax liability with interest and penalties for tax 25 year 2017 and $956,632 to cover Biden's self-assessed

34

1 individual tax liability with interest and penalties for tax
2 year 2018.

3 In addition, in or around February of 2020,
4 Biden's California accountants discovered that Biden's 2016
5 Form 1040 had not been filed. The return was originally 6 prepared in or around October 2017 and showed $15,520 in 7 taxes due and owing. Though it was delivered to Biden at 8 Biden's office, this return was not filed with the Internal 9 Revenue Service. After learning in 2020 that the Form 1040 10 for 2016 remained unfiled, Biden filed a Form 1040 on 11 June 12, 2020. For tax year 2016, Biden reported $1,580,283 12 in total income and self-assessed tax due of $492,895, of 13 which $447,234 was timely paid, leaving a balance due and 14 owing of $45,661. Biden did not include a payment with this

15 return. On or about October 18, 2021, this liability, plus 16 accrued interest and penalties, was also fully paid by a 17 third party.

18 Finally, after seeking an extension, Biden
19 timely filed his 2019 Form 1040 on or about October 15th, 20 2020. He did not, however, pay his estimated tax due when 21 filing for an extension as required by law. For tax year 22 2019, Biden reported $1,045,850 in total income and a 23 self-assessed tax due and owing of $197,372. On October 18, 24 2021, this liability, plus accrued interest and penalties, 25 was also fully paid by the same third party.

1 THE COURT: All right. Thank you. Now I did
2 have a few questions.

3 Paragraph 5A says that the amount of loss as to 4 Counts I and II including the relevant conduct as defined in 5 sentencing guideline is no less than $1,199,524, and no 6 greater than $1,593,329. Is that the combined loss or the 7 loss for each count?

8 MR. WISE: Combined loss, Your Honor.

9 THE COURT: All right. In Exhibit 1, there are 10 references to taxes paid by a third party on Mr. Biden's 11 behalf of $955,000, and $956,632, as well as $492,000 in 12 2016 and $197,000 for 2019. Just looking at 2017 and 2018 13 which are the subject of this case, those numbers add up to 14 more than $1.9 million. Can you help me square that with 15 the relevant conduct.

16 MR. WISE: So the amount that was paid by the 17 third party includes significant penalties and interests 18 which we have not included in the loss stipulation that's in 19 paragraph 5A. The paragraph 5A is the taxes and there is a 20 dispute as to what the taxes were based on the business 21 deductions and that's something that the parties will 22 address in their sentencing memorandum, but this number is 23 loss without inclusion of the penalties and interest.

24 THE COURT: Is that standard?

25 MR. WISE: Yes, Your Honor.

36

1 THE COURT: Did you want to say something?

2 MR. CLARK: I was going to say it's a relevant
3 guideline, Your Honor, for a failure to pay case omits 4 penalties and interests from the calculation of the tax
5 table loss. And there is a dispute about where in the range 6 it goes, but the explanation, penalties and interest are not 7 properly included under this guideline for this offense.

8 THE COURT: And if it were tax evasion, would 9 those be included?

10 MR. CLARK: It's my understanding that they 11 would be, Your Honor.

12 MR. WISE: Yes, Your Honor.

13 THE COURT: Okay. Paragraph 5b refers to the 14 Diversion Agreement. That's the Diversion Agreement 15 contemplated in the Criminal Action 23-61, the felony gun 16 charge?

17 MR. WISE: Yes, Your Honor.

18 THE COURT: All right. Paragraph 12 refers to 19 restitution, and says the self-assessed tax due at the time 20 of filing and the associated interest and penalties have 21 been paid to the Internal Revenue Service by a third party 22 on behalf of the Defendant. What does self-assessed mean?

23 MR. WISE: It means the amount when the returns 24 were prepared that, the return prepared determine what was 25 owed based on the income that was reported and deductions

37

1 and credit.

2 MR. CLARK: I think, Your Honor, based on that 3 and all this process, these numbers are based on payout 4 numbers that were obtained from the IRS. Self assessment is 5 a process by which a return filer writes a return, says this 6 is how much tax I owe. There was a lot of process here
7 between the IRS and these returns and at the end of the day 8 a payout number was obtained by the IRS and that number was 9 paid.

10 THE COURT: So this isn't -- that's what I'm 11 trying to figure out, is there someone still looking into 12 that to see if the self-assessed number is accurate, or do 13 you know that it's zero?

14 MR. WISE: So the self-assessed number again is 15 the amount on the return plus the interest and penalties 16 that were derived through the payoff. As the statement of 17 facts addresses, there is a dispute as to what was 18 self-assessed or what the self-assessed number would be for 19 tax year 2018 and that will be addressed in the sentencing 20 memoranda.

21 MR. CLARK: To be clear, the dispute is we think 22 it's lower. As the statement of facts recites, there was 23 actually an overstatement of Mr. Biden's income that year.
24 I mean, my understanding is all of the monies that the IRS 25 takes a position Mr. Biden owes as a result of every tax

38

1 year being discussed have been paid based on their 2 calculation, if that answers Your Honor's question.

3 MR. WISE: So our position, Your Honor, is there 4 are additional -- there are deductions that were taken that 5 were improper and so that's why for the loss purposes, 6 putting aside what the payoff number was in our sentencing 7 memorandum, we will address those. The IRS in arriving at 8 the payoff number didn't --

9 THE COURT: Well, I'm just asking because you
10 said it's expected to be zero, why is it expected to be zero 11 if you're telling me that the numbers might be wrong?

12 MR. WISE: Because that is the payoff amount 13 that the IRS gave to the Defendant which is sort of a 14 process that produces that that is separate from the 15 criminal investigation and essentially divorced from it.
16 That's why the agreement doesn't bind the IRS if they then 17 make a decision essentially for additional restitution that 18 could occur.

19 THE COURT: Why do you say it's expected to be 20 zero?

21 MR. WISE: Because as of the payoff number that 22 was given, there is no at this moment restitution owed to 23 the IRS.

24 THE COURT: All right. So those are my initial 25 questions. I may have some more as we go through this, but

39

1 that's what I had at this moment.

2 Mr. Biden, does the written agreement as 3 summarized by Mr. Wise accurately reflect the agreement you 4 have reached with the government?

5 THE DEFENDANT: Yes, Your Honor.

6 THE COURT: Has anyone threatened you or forced 7 you into entering this written agreement?

8 THE DEFENDANT: No, Your Honor.

9 THE COURT: Has anyone made you any promises 10 that are not contained in the written agreement?

11 MR. CLARK: Your Honor, with the exception of 12 the Diversion Agreement --

13 THE COURT: We're not making an exception. I 14 want to know, has anyone made you any promises that are not 15 contained in the written Memorandum of Plea Agreement?

16 MR. CLARK: Yes, there are promises from the 17 government in the Diversion Agreement, Your Honor.

18 THE COURT: And sir, are you relying on the 19 promises made in the Diversion Agreement in connection with 20 your agreement to plead guilty?

21 THE DEFENDANT: Yes, Your Honor.

22 THE COURT: And if the Diversion Agreement were 23 not valid or unenforceable for any reason, would you enter 24 into the Memorandum of Plea Agreement?

25 THE DEFENDANT: No, Your Honor.

1 THE COURT: All right. So we're going to 2 discuss that agreement in a bit, but for now let me say -- 3 by the way, I didn't get a copy of paragraph 15 of the 4 agreement, but the parties provided me with a copy of that 5 agreement prior to this hearing, so that's what I'm going to 6 quote from at the moment.

7 Paragraph 15 of the Diversion Agreement states
8 the United States agrees not to criminally prosecute Biden 9 outside of the terms of this agreement for any federal 10 crimes encompassed by the attached statement of facts, 11 Attachment A to the Diversion Agreement, and the statement
12 of facts attached as Exhibit 1 to the Memorandum of Plea 13 Agreement filed this same day. This agreement does not 14 provide any protection against prosecution for any future
15 conduct by Biden or by any of his affiliated businesses.

16 And just so we're clear, I think you already 17 answered this, sir, but are you relying on that promise in 18 connection with your agreement to accept the Memorandum of 19 Plea Agreement and plead guilty?

20 THE DEFENDANT: Yes, Your Honor.

21 THE COURT: If that provision were not valid or 22 not enforceable, would you accept the Memorandum of Plea
23 Agreement?

24 THE DEFENDANT: No, Your Honor.

25 THE COURT: If you had no immunity from the 41

1 government, perhaps even a different prosecutor and the 2 government could bring a felony tax evasion charge or drug
3 charges against you, would you still enter the plea
4 agreement and plead guilty to these tax charges?

5 THE DEFENDANT: No, Your Honor.

6 THE COURT: All right. So I need some help here
7 because you all told me this was a plea under Rule 8 11(c)(1)(B) and not (c)(1)(A), but yet I have this provision 9 that I would think is normally in a plea agreement. So tell 10 me, how do these agreements relate? Are they part of a 11 package deal?

12 MR. WISE: So, Your Honor, the United State's 13 position is that the agreements stand alone by their own 14 terms and both agreements include their last paragraph that 15 says that with this one caveat --

16 THE COURT: This is a big caveat, though, if 17 you're telling me Rule 11(c)(1)(B) doesn't give me any 18 authority to look at this, (c)(1)(A) refers to, you know, 19 having an agreement not to prosecute. That's why I'm 20 looking at this. I'm not saying that you're wrong, but I 21 need to understand this.

22 MR. WISE: Sure. So Your Honor, again, our view
23 is the plea agreement stands alone. There is no charge 24 bargaining in the plea agreement, period. And that's what 25 they have agreed to. The Diversion Agreement --

42

1 THE COURT: But he would not agree, just so I
2 understand, sir, you would not agree to that plea agreement 3 if you didn't get some immunity from other charges, is that 4 right?

5 MR. CLARK: Speaking for my client, that's 6 correct, Your Honor.

7 THE COURT: I didn't mean that to be a
8 rhetorical question. So you're trying to tell me that 9 that's separate, but I think -- and I understand why he's 10 saying no, I wouldn't -- that isn't separate to me, I need 11 them both.

12 MR. WISE: That's the intention with the 13 agreement he signed.

14 THE COURT: So the intention of the agreement he 15 signed was that it would be completely separate and if that 16 Diversion Agreement were not valid or unenforceable and he 17 were on the hook for other charges that he would still be 18 pleading guilty?

19 MR. WISE: That's right, because that's what the 20 final paragraph of the plea agreement says he's agreeing to, 21 that the plea agreement stands on its own without any 22 additional promises outside the four corners of that 23 agreement.

24 THE COURT: Do you guys need to talk about this 25 for a few minutes?

43

1 MR. CLARK: Yes.

2 THE COURT: How about I give you guys an 3 opportunity so we can make sure we're on the same page 4 because part of my charge here is to make sure that the 5 Defendant knows what he's pleading to.

6 MR. CLARK: We appreciate it, Your Honor.

7 COURT CLERK: All rise.
8 (A brief recess was taken.)

9 THE COURT: All right. Please be seated. Where 10 are we?

11 MR. CLARK: Your Honor, I want to apologize for 12 maybe my unartful phrasing for some of the issues that came 13 up a minute ago. Perhaps I can explain the Defendant's 14 position and that may clarify things. There are two 15 agreements in this case. They are both very important to 16 the Defendant. One is a plea agreement that the Court has 17 before it and my client is ready to enter a plea to that 18 plea agreement without contingency, without reservation, and 19 without connection. There is another agreement which is a 20 Diversion Agreement which --

21 THE COURT: Right. So let me just ask you, if 22 that Diversion Agreement were not valid or were 23 unenforceable for some reason, would he enter this plea?

24 MR. CLARK: He is ready to live by the terms of 25 that agreement --

1 THE COURT: If that Diversion Agreement did not 2 exist, he would be willing to live by the terms of the plea
3 and plead guilty? I have concerns about that Diversion 4 Agreement so I'm asking you, if it were not valid, if it 5 were unenforceable, would he plead to the memorandum of 6 plea?

7 MR. CLARK: Based on our understanding of the 8 Diversion Agreement, which is a bilateral agreement between 9 the Defendant and the government which the government has 10 reaffirmed to me it will stand by, then yeah, he would enter 11 the plea.

12 THE COURT: So you're not answering my question.
13 You're saying well, we think it's valid and enforceable.
14 I'm asking you, if it were not, go with me here, if that 15 agreement were not valid and enforceable, if that agreement 16 did not exist and he could not rely on it, would he enter 17 the memoranda of plea?

18 MR. CLARK: You're asking for a hypothetical 19 from me, Your Honor.

20 THE COURT: Yes, I'm asking that because --

21 MR. CLARK: Yes, my client would resolve this 22 case on these terms in the hypothetical situation that exist 23 without that Diversion Agreement. I want to be clear that 24 it is the parties' position that there is a Diversion 25 Agreement between the parties which is binding. But take

45

1 that out of today's proceeding and my client is ready to 2 enter a plea under the plea agreement.

3 THE COURT: All right. Let me ask you those 4 questions again, Mr. Biden. If the Diversion Agreement were 5 not valid and enforceable for any reason, would you enter 6 the Memorandum of Plea Agreement?

7 THE DEFENDANT: Yes, Your Honor.

8 THE COURT: And are you relying on the promise 9 in the Diversion Agreement not to prosecute you in 10 connection with your agreement to accept the Memorandum of 11 Plea Agreement and plead guilty?

12 THE DEFENDANT: No, Your Honor.

13 THE COURT: And so if you had no immunity from 14 the government through that Diversion Agreement and the 15 government could bring felony tax evasion charges or drug
16 charges against you, would you still enter the plea
17 agreement and plead guilty to these tax charges?

18 THE DEFENDANT: Yes, Your Honor.

19 THE COURT: All right. Now, I want to talk a 20 little bit about this agreement not to prosecute. The 21 agreement not to prosecute includes -- is in the gun case, 22 but it also includes crimes related to the tax case. So we 23 looked through a bunch of diversion agreements that we have 24 access to and we couldn't find anything that had anything 25 similar to that.

46

1 So let me first ask, do you have any precedent
2 for agreeing not to prosecute crimes that have nothing to do 3 with the case or the charges being diverted?

4 MR. WISE: I'm not aware of any, Your Honor.

5 THE COURT: Do you have any authority that says
6 that that's appropriate and that the probation officer 7 should agree to that as terms, or the chief of probation
8 should agree to that as terms of a Diversion Agreement?

9 MR. WISE: Your Honor, I believe that this is a 10 bilateral agreement between the parties that the parties
11 view in their best interest. I don't believe that the role 12 of probation would include weighing whether the benefit of 13 the bargain is valid or not from the perspective of the 14 United States or the Defendant.

15 THE COURT: So have you ever seen -- I think I 16 just asked you this, but have you ever seen a Diversion 17 Agreement where the agreement not to prosecute is so broad 18 that it encompasses crimes in a different case?

19 MR. WISE: No. And I would say, Your Honor, I 20 don't think it is broad in the sense that --

21 THE COURT: We're going to talk about that. You 22 can sit down.

23 All right. Now, is an agreement not to bring 24 charges or an agreement to drop charges typically something 25 that is included in a Memorandum of Plea Agreement?

47

1 MR. WISE: It can be.

2 THE COURT: And if it were included in the 3 Memorandum of Plea Agreement, would that make this plea 4 agreement one pursuant to Rule 11(c)(1)(A)?

5 MR. WALLACE: It would.

6 THE COURT: In your view, that would change the 7 analysis of what I needed to do in evaluating whether to 8 accept this plea or not, right?

9 MR. WISE: It would.

10 THE COURT: And so let's just understand this.
11 If it were that, then my role would be to accept or reject 12 the plea, right?

13 MR. WISE: It would.

14 THE COURT: What happens if I accept the plea, 15 we go forward to sentencing?

16 MR. WISE: Yes.

17 THE COURT: And what happens if I reject the 18 plea?

19 MR. WISE: Then we -- this is one of the issues 20 with charge bargaining.

21 THE COURT: Because there is a waiver of venue.

22 MR. WISE: Well, there is a waiver of venue, but 23 also, and this has been addressed by some courts outside of 24 this circuit, because of the separation of powers, if the 25 Court were to reject a (c)(1)(A) on its view that the 48

1 charges should be different --

2 THE COURT: Well, what if I were to reject the 3 (c)(1)(A) plea on the grounds that it includes an agreement 4 not to prosecute, that as we're going to talk about in a few 5 minutes, I don't really understand the scope of.

6 MR. WISE: So --

7 THE COURT: I mean, forget all the 8 investigation, what charges were brought, I think that the 9 parties have made clear that we live in a system of 10 separation of powers, those powers are given to the 11 Executive Branch. Right?

12 MR. WISE: Right.

13 THE COURT: So I don't mean to violate the 14 separation of powers or do anything unconstitutional. I'm 15 trying to figure out what my role is and what the 16 appropriate rule is that applies to this.

 17 MR. WISE: Right.
 18 THE COURT: Okay. And so I am trying to 19 understand if I were to reject the plea, I'm not saying I am 20 going to, I have not -- for anyone in the back, I have not 21 made that determination, but if I were to reject the plea, 22 just tell me what happens.
 23 MR. WISE: So then we have two charges against 24 the Defendant and they're misdemeanors, so he doesn't need 25 to be indicted and we go forward and there is a trial on

49

1 those charges, and there is a possibility that there could 2 be additional charges brought.
 3 THE COURT: Related to the tax issues?
 4 MR. WISE: Yes.
 5 THE COURT: Do you agree with that, Mr. Clark, 6 what would happen? Again, I want to make sure I'm not 7 saying that's my decision.
 8 MR. CLARK: I understand, Your Honor. I don't 9 necessarily disagree. I'm not aware of any additional 10 charges that could validly be brought with regard to the tax 11 charges. Again, without getting into the whole 12 investigation, but I do think there is some context that's 13 important here. The U.S. Attorney's Office and me spent 14 five years in meeting after meeting, hours, ten hour long 15 meetings going through my client's taxes on a line-by-line 16 basis, and this is the disposition the parties came to after 17 a five-year investigation that was pursued with unbelievable 18 diligence and doggedness. And so first of all, I don't 19 think there are any other charges to be brought. I think, 20 you know, we thought that just like in any compromise 21 situation, we had valid arguments with regard to these 22 charges, but my client undertook to plead guilty to them 23 because it was the right disposition for all the parties 24 after extensive negotiation, and so yeah, I think we would 25 have two filed informations and the Court and the parties

50

1 would figure out how to proceed on those informations and 2 that would be the rest of the process.
 3 THE COURT: All right. So you said there might 4 be additional charges. Are you at liberty to tell us what 5 you're thinking those might be or is that just a 6 hypothetical that there might be?
 7 MR. WISE: It was a hypothetical response to 8 your question.
 9 THE COURT: Is there an ongoing investigation
 10 here?
 11 MR. WISE: There is.
 12 THE COURT: May I ask then why if there is we're 13 doing this piecemeal?
 14 MR. WISE: Your Honor may ask, but I'm not in a 15 position where I can say.
 16 THE COURT: Okay. So you can sit down.
 17 I think what I'm concerned about here is that 18 you seem to be asking for the inclusion of the Court in this 19 agreement, yet you're telling me that I don't have any role 20 in it, and you're leaving provisions of the plea agreement 21 out and putting them into an agreement that you are not 22 asking me to sign off on. So I need you to help me 23 understand why this isn't in the written plea agreement.
 24 MR. CLARK: If I may, Your Honor. I mean, the 25 original conception here was something like a deferred

51

1 prosecution, non-prosecution agreement, which generally the 2 Court doesn't necessarily weigh in on. I don't think it was 3 the -- we are not asking the Court to rule in any way on the 4 Diversion Agreement. The diversion as far as I understand 5 it has been approved by probation, there is a -- you've 6 arraigned the Defendant on the instrument and I believe that 7 process will go forward.
 8 THE COURT: We have to talk about the Diversion
 9 Agreement because you have included me into the Diversion

10 Agreement, so we are going to talk about that. But I am 11 just still, you know, normally -- so we have two agreements, 12 we have a plea agreement where you're saying Judge, we're 13 all here in front of you for him to plead. You're saying I 14 don't even get to accept it, I guess I'm supposed to rubber 15 stamp it under Rule (c)(1)(B). But then it would be a plea 16 under Rule (c)(1)(A) if the provision that you have put in 17 the Diversion Agreement which you do not have anyplace for 18 me to sign and it is not in my purview under the statute to 19 sign, you put that provision over there. So I am concerned 20 that you're taking provisions out of the agreement, of a 21 plea agreement that would normally be in there. So can you 22 -- I don't really understand why that is.
 23 MR. WISE: So the bargain that was reached by 24 the parties was the Plea Agreement that is in front of Your 25 Honor, which is a (c)(1)(B) as I mentioned, where there is 52

1 only a recommended sentence, that is -- that is the Plea
 2 Agreement --
 3 THE COURT: Well, it's not, because you do 4 reference -- you reference the Diversion Agreement in the 5 Plea Agreement.
 6 MR. WISE: Not in the Plea Agreement.
 7 THE COURT: You do. I asked you if paragraph 5B
 8 referred to the Diversion Agreement and you said yes.
 9 MR. WISE: Only insofar as it's not relevant 10 conduct.
 11 THE COURT: You reference it in the Plea
 12 Agreement, right?
 13 MR. WISE: But it doesn't incorporate it.
 14 THE COURT: And in the Diversion Agreement, you 15 reference the Memorandum of Plea Agreement, right?
 16 MR. WISE: Only part of it.
 17 THE COURT: And you say that the -- in the 18 Diversion Agreement when you say there is not going to be 19 any prosecution, you say that's not just prosecution on the 20 gun charge which is the subject of the Diversion Agreement, 21 you say also no prosecution with respect to anything in the 22 statement of facts attached to the memorandum of plea, 23 right.
 24 MR. WISE: Yes.
 25 THE COURT: All right. Okay. So I don't really 53

1 understand, though, why that's not part of the Plea
 2 Agreement.
 3 MR. WISE: Because by the terms of the Plea
 4 Agreement, the only function, the Diversion Agreement -- 5 well, it has no function but the parties negotiated that 6 their view, and it's their view, probation can take a 7 different view, Your Honor can take a different view, their 8 view is the firearms offense should not be considered 9 relevant conduct for calculating the guidelines related to 10 the tax offense, that is all that 5(b) says. It does not 11 incorporate the paragraph 15 or any part of the Diversion
 12 Agreement, it simply says our view is the Diversion 13 Agreement, the firearm offense should not be considered 14 relevant conduct in calculating the guidelines.
 15 I think practically how this would work, Your 16 Honor, is if Your Honor takes the plea and signs the 17 Diversion Agreement which is what puts it into force as of 18 today, and at some point in the future we were to bring 19 charges that the Defendant thought were encompassed by the 20 factual statement in the Diversion Agreement or the factual
 21 statement in the Plea Agreement, they could move to dismiss 22 those charges on the grounds that we had contractually 23 agreed not to bring charges encompassed within the factual
 24 statement of the Diversion Agreement or the factual 25 statement of the tax charges.

54

1 MR. CLARK: That's my understanding, Your Honor, 2 we would be enforcing a contract with the Department of 3 Justice.

4 THE COURT: I don't understand how you have an 5 agreement not to pursue other charges in the case, the 6 misdemeanor case, and you say that is not part of his Plea
7 Agreement.

8 MR. WISE: Because the Plea Agreement does not 9 include that.

10 THE COURT: All right. So let's talk a little 11 bit more about this. To the extent that the agreement -- 12 you can sit down.

13 To the extent that the agreement not to 14 prosecute is promised, do the parties have some 15 understanding what the scope of that agreement is?

16 MR. WISE: Yes, Your Honor.

17 THE COURT: No, tell me, like specifically what 18 does it include. You said that there is an investigation, I 19 don't know what that is, but you must know that if there are 20 particular charges that could be brought based on the facts 21 that are there.

22 MR. WISE: So I can tell you what I think we 23 can't charge. I can't tell you what the ongoing 24 investigation is. So, for instance, I think based on the 25 terms of the agreement, we cannot bring tax evasion charges

55

1 for the years described in the factual statement to the Plea
2 Agreement. And I think we cannot bring for the firearms
3 charges based on the firearm identified in the factual
4 statement to the Diversion Agreement.

5 THE COURT: All right. So there are references
6 to foreign companies, for example, in the facts section.
7 Could the government bring a charge under the Foreign Agents 8 Registration Act?

9 MR. WISE: Yes.

10 THE COURT: I'm trying to figure out if there is 11 a meeting of the minds here and I'm not sure that this 12 provision isn't part of the Plea Agreement and so that's why 13 I'm asking.

14 MR. CLARK: Your Honor, the Plea Agreement --

15 THE COURT: I need you to answer my question if 16 you can. Is there a meeting of the minds on that one?

17 MR. CLARK: As stated by the government just 18 now, I don't agree with what the government said.

19 THE COURT: So I mean, these are contracts. To 20 be enforceable, there has to be a meeting of the minds. So 21 what do we do now?

22 MR. WISE: Then there is no deal.

23 THE COURT: All right. I guess then the 24 question is where does that leave us? So what do we need to 25 do? Do you guys need some time to talk? Do you need me to 56

1 set a date -- do we need to talk about a preliminary hearing
2 since we didn't really need to do one with the agreement?

3 MR. CLARK: We'll waive the preliminary hearing.
4 As far as I'm concerned, the Plea Agreement is null and 5 void. You know, we'll have -- we are going to have to 6 discuss things with the government.

7 THE COURT: All right. So I think we're on the 8 clock now. So what should we do? Do you want me to set a 9 date for pretrial motions? Do you want to exclude a little 10 bit of time so that you have some time to talk? What do you 11 want to do?

12 MR. CLARK: I think we would need thirty days 13 after the trial clock to figure out what's going on.

14 THE COURT: All right. I agree. I know that 15 this has come as a little bit of a curve ball, but I think 16 that having you guys talk some more makes sense, and we will 17 exclude the time up through -- so the thirty days takes us
18 to the Friday before Labor Day. Do you want that or do you 19 want the following week?

20 MR. CLARK: I think that's fine, Your Honor.

21 THE COURT: So we'll exclude up through 22 September 1st, you guys can get me a status report then. I 23 think it does make sense in the interest of justice to do 24 so. We'll get a status report and then we'll figure out 25 where we are.

57

1 MR. CLARK: Your Honor, can we ask you to take 2 ten minutes and see whether we can somehow make any headway 3 on this?
4 THE COURT: Okay.
5 MR. CLARK: Thank you, Your Honor.
6 COURT CLERK: All rise.
7 (A brief recess was taken.)
8 THE COURT: All right. Please be seated. Where 9 are we?
10 MR. CLARK: Your Honor, we have had some 11 discussion between the parties to try to clarify the 12 understanding and I just want to kind of summarize where we 13 are and if the government's counsel wants to correct me.
14 The parties have taken the position that the Diversion 15 Agreement is a separate agreement from the Plea Agreement.
16 The Diversion Agreement is a bilateral contract between the 17 parties. Your Honor has asked the parties what their 18 understanding of the paragraph 15 of the Diversion Agreement 19 is. I think there was some space between us and at this 20 point, we are prepared to agree with the government that the 21 scope of paragraph 15 relates to the specific areas of 22 federal crimes that are discussed in the statement of facts 23 which in general and broadly relate to gun possession, tax 24 issues, and drug use.
25 THE COURT: So are you going to rewrite that?

58

1 MR. CLARK: The government says that's what it
2 means and Your Honor asked for what the parties agree.
3 THE COURT: I'm just looking at the language of 4 that. So you're comfortable with that's what it means even 5 though the language of that seems substantially broader?
6 MR. CLARK: Your Honor, I just put on the record 7 what I have --
8 THE COURT: You didn't just answer yes so that 9 also -- so yes, you are comfortable that that provision 10 means that it only relate and for what period of time?
11 MR. WISE: It would be the period of time in the 12 statement of fact, both statement of facts.
13 THE COURT: Help me out with that.
14 MR. WISE: '14 to '19 for the tax offenses and 15 the drug -- and the admission of drug use in that period and 16 then the firearms is obviously specifically identified in 17 the time period in which that was possessed.
18 THE COURT: All right. So the defense agrees 19 that the agreement not to prosecute only includes the time 20 period from 2014 to 2019, it only includes tax charges in 21 that time period, drug charges in that time period, and the 22 particular -- the firearms charges that relate to this 23 particular firearm?
24 MR. CLARK: Yes, Your Honor.
25 THE COURT: All right. So you can be seated.

59

1 Let me just take a look here. I mean, part of the issue
2 that I'm having is understanding, you know, regardless of 3 whether this is a plea under subsection B or subsection A, 4 it has to be a knowing plea and I'm already faced with the 5 Defendant under oath saying both that he would not enter the 6 Memorandum of Plea Agreement if the Diversion Agreement were 7 not valid, and that he would. And so I'm a little bit 8 confused about that. So I think we can work through that.
9 But let's take a look at some of the rest of this.
10 All right. Sir, other than what we have just 11 discussed, are there any other promises that have been made 12 to you to entice you to enter the Memorandum of Plea
13 Agreement?
14 THE DEFENDANT: No, Your Honor.
15 THE COURT: Do you understand that this is the 16 time to tell me of any promises not in the record or of any 17 threats that have been made because after today you won't be 18 able to withdraw your plea based on information that you 19 could have shared with me here?
20 THE DEFENDANT: Yes, Your Honor.

21 THE COURT: Do you understand that the plea -- 22 terms of the Plea Agreement are merely recommendations to 23 me, that I can reject those recommendations without 24 permitting you to withdraw your plea and impose a sentence 25 that is harsher or longer or more severe than the one that 60

1 you may anticipate?

2 THE DEFENDANT: Yes, Your Honor.

3 THE COURT: Are you pleading guilty of your own 4 free will because you are, in fact, guilty?

5 THE DEFENDANT: Yes, Your Honor.

6 THE COURT: All right. Now I want to walk
 7 through some of the specific provisions of the agreement.
 8 First, venue. Do you have the agreement in front of you?

9 THE DEFENDANT: Yes, Your Honor.

10 THE COURT: All right. So paragraph 1 states 11 that you waive any challenge to the information based on 12 venue. Do you understand that absent that waiver, you could 13 challenge this Court being the appropriate Court to hear 14 these charges?

15 THE DEFENDANT: Yes, Your Honor.

16 THE COURT: By entering this plea you are giving 17 up that challenge?

18 THE DEFENDANT: Yes, Your Honor.

19 THE COURT: Did you discuss that provision with 20 your counsel?

21 THE DEFENDANT: Yes, Your Honor.

22 THE COURT: Again, are you satisfied with the 23 advice that you received?

24 THE DEFENDANT: Yes, Your Honor.

25 THE COURT: Now, next, in paragraph 2, Mr. Wise

61

1 went over the maximum penalties for Counts I and II when he 2 summarized the essential terms and I mentioned those to you
 3 earlier when we were doing the initial plea. Do you 4 understand what the maximum penalties are for each of the 5 counts that's pending against you?

6 THE DEFENDANT: Yes, Your Honor.

7 THE COURT: Do you need me to go through them
 8 one more time or are you okay?

9 THE DEFENDANT: No, Your Honor, thank you.

10 THE COURT: Paragraph 3. Paragraph 3 list the 11 essential elements of Counts I and II that the government 12 would have to prove. Specifically for each count the 13 government would have to prove beyond a reasonable doubt 14 that the Defendant, you, had a duty to pay a tax. Two, the 15 tax was not paid at the time required by law. And three, 16 that your failure to pay was willful. Do you understand 17 that if I accept your guilty plea, the government will not 18 have to prove anything?

19 THE DEFENDANT: Yes, Your Honor.

20 THE COURT: Paragraph 3 also references the 21 statement of facts attached to the Plea Agreement as 22 Exhibit 1. Mr. Wise read those into the record and that is 23 something that is not common in my experience. I just want 24 to ask you about some of those. I'm not going to go through 25 all of those facts but I want to ask them because it is part

1 of the Plea Agreement that is being presented to me and 2 particularly given our earlier discussion about the fact 3 that those facts are incorporated into the agreement not to 4 prosecute.

5 All right. So, do you have those in front of 6 you?

7 THE DEFENDANT: Yes, Your Honor.

8 THE COURT: All right. So in the very first 9 paragraph of Exhibit 1, it says towards the end, it says 10 through at least early 2017 -- I think before that, in the 11 first paragraph, in the second sentence it says from 2017 to 12 2019, you served on the board of Ukrainian energy company 13 and a Chinese private equity fund. Can you tell me what 14 those companies were?

15 THE DEFENDANT: The Ukrainian energy company was 16 Burisma, and the Chinese private equity fund was Bohai, 17 Harvest and Rosemont.
 18 THE COURT: And some of this I'm asking just so 19 I understand because there are other references to Ukrainian 20 companies and Chinese companies and I can't tell if they're 21 the same company or not, so that's part of why I'm asking 22 you. Later in that paragraph, it says through at least 2017
 23 you were employed by a prestigious multi-national law firm 24 in an of counsel position. It says through at least 2017.
 25 What were the years, do you remember like how long you

63

1 worked there?
 2 THE DEFENDANT: Your Honor, I think I was at 3 Boise Schiller 2010, maybe, was when I started, but I am not 4 positive of that. That's what I believe.
 5 THE COURT: Okay. And were you in an of counsel 6 position that whole time?
 7 THE DEFENDANT: Yes, Your Honor.
 8 THE COURT: All right. Now, it says then that 9 you -- for the work you did, you earned 2.3 million in 2017 10 and 2.1 million in 2018. Now, you left Boise Schiller in 11 2017, right?
 12 THE DEFENDANT: Yes, Your Honor.
 13 THE COURT: So, can you tell me how -- I'm 14 trying to understand the 2018 $2.1 million.
 15 MR. CLARK: My understanding, Your Honor, is 16 that sentence picks up the work described in the last couple 17 of sentences, not just the work for Boise Schiller.
 18 THE COURT: Well, Mr. Biden actually knows.
 19 THE DEFENDANT: Yeah, exactly, Your Honor, I 20 believe what the government intended for that sentence was 21 that it was the total income, not just as it relates to my 22 capacity for Boise Schiller.
 23 THE COURT: So for all your work -- 24 THE DEFENDANT: For this work, it's all of the 25 things that are listed above there.

64

1 THE COURT: All right. Thank you. Okay. In 2 the next paragraph, it says you have a well-documented and 3 long-standing struggle with abuse and you did tell me
 4 already, I'm not going to ask you again about your efforts 5 to treat that. But when we talk about well-documented, is 6 there a particular thing that we're looking at for where 7 it's documented or is that just based on your discussions?
 8 THE DEFENDANT: Well, I believe the government 9 is referring to a book that I wrote about my struggles with 10 addiction in that period of time in my life. And quite 11 possibly other news outlets and interviews and things that 12 have been done.
 13 THE COURT: Okay. In that paragraph, it refers 14 sort of towards the middle, it refers to your struggles with 15 addiction led to the collapse of your most significant 16 professional relationship. Is that referring to the law 17 firm or something else?
 18 THE DEFENDANT: My business relationship, my 19 business relationships, all of my business relationships, 20 ultimately including the law firm. I had a business that 21 was Rosemont Seneca advisors, and I had a long-standing 22 business partner from the inception of that company that I 23 started. And others that all collapsed during that period 24 of time.
 25 THE COURT: So one of the businesses was 65

1 Rosemont Seneca. Were there others that collapsed? The one
 2 reference here to Owasco.
 3 THE DEFENDANT: Virtually everything collapsed.
 4 Owasco is the holding company for all of the other companies 5 below there.
 6 THE COURT: Okay. And who was your business 7 partner?
 8 THE DEFENDANT: A gentleman named Eric Schwerin.
 9 THE COURT: All right. The fourth paragraph

10 says during the calendar year 2017, you earned substantial 11 income including just under a million dollars from a company 12 you formed with a CEO of a Chinese business conglomerate.
 13 Is that the same or a different Chinese company from the one 14 you referenced earlier?
 15 THE DEFENDANT: I started a company called 16 Hudson West, Your Honor, and my partner was associated with 17 a Chinese energy company called CEFC.
 18 THE COURT: Who was your partner?
 19 THE DEFENDANT: I don't know how to spell his 20 name, Yi Jianming is the chairman of that company.
 21 THE COURT: Is that company still in existence?
 22 THE DEFENDANT: No.
 23 THE COURT: Okay. Then it says you made 24 $666,666 from your domestic business interest. Is that the 25 Rosemont Seneca one?

66

1 THE DEFENDANT: Yes, Your Honor, I believe 2 that's what it refers to.
 3 THE COURT: $664,000 from a Chinese
 4 infrastructure investment company. Is that one of the 5 companies we've already talked about?
 6 THE DEFENDANT: I believe so, yes, Your Honor.
 7 THE COURT: Which one is that?
 8 THE WITNESS: I believe CEFC.
 9 THE COURT: Okay. $500,000 in director's fees
 10 from the Ukrainian energy company. That's the one that you 11 already told me about?
 12 THE DEFENDANT: Same, Burisma.
 13 THE COURT: Burisma.
 14 Okay. 48,000 from the law firm.
 15 THE DEFENDANT: Yes.
 16 THE COURT: That's the Boise Schiller?
 17 THE DEFENDANT: Yes, it is.
 18 THE COURT: All right. Okay. The bottom of 19 that first page, the final paragraph says that the 20 accountant sent copies of the tax documents, copies of the 21 tax documents to your former business partner. Is that 22 Mr. Schwerin?
 23 THE DEFENDANT: I believe that's who it's 24 referring to, yes, Your Honor.
 25 THE COURT: All right. On the next page, at the 67

1 end of the second paragraph, starting four lines from the 2 bottom in the middle of the line, the paragraph talks about 3 your tax liability. And it says the end of year liability 4 should not have come as a surprise. Do you see that?
 5 THE DEFENDANT: I'm sorry, I'm just trying -- 6 THE COURT: That's okay. Take your time.
 7 THE DEFENDANT: Yes, I see that here.
 8 THE COURT: It says it should not have come as a 9 surprise. It wasn't a surprise, is that right?
 10 THE DEFENDANT: Yes, Your Honor.
 11 THE COURT: And you knew --
 12 THE DEFENDANT: Well, I don't -- I didn't write 13 this, Your Honor, so the characterization -- 14 MR. CLARK: Can we elaborate the time there,
 15 Your Honor?
 16 THE COURT: Yes.
 17 MR. CLARK: So essentially there was a tax
 18 treatment that was undertaken in that year, and it changed 19 the tax treatment at the very end of the year for a 20 particular asset. And so I think the point is, and I didn't 21 write this either, there was substantial influx of income 22 during that year. There was an issue with this last minute 23 tax treatment change, and so there were expressions at times 24 of surprise at that. I think the government's point is you 25 knew you made a lot of money, it shouldn't have come as a

68

1 surprise.
 2 THE COURT: My only concern is when I read this 3 as a lawyer, it shouldn't have come as a surprise, that 4 doesn't preclude Mr. Biden from saying yes, it did.

5 MR. CLARK: Your Honor's characterization is 6 exactly right.
7 THE COURT: You're saying it actually was a
8 surprise?
9 MR. CLARK: In that year.
10 THE COURT: You guys are okay with that?
11 MR. WISE: Yes, Your Honor.
12 THE COURT: All right. But you did know that 13 you owed tax money, right?
14 THE DEFENDANT: Yes, Your Honor.
15 THE COURT: And your business partner,
16 Mr. Schwerin, told you that no withholdings had been made?
17 THE DEFENDANT: Yes, Your Honor, I believe that 18 to be the case.
19 THE COURT: All right. In the third paragraph, 20 which is actually the second full paragraph, it says on or 21 about March 22nd, 2018, you received a million dollar 22 payment into your Owasco bank account as payment for legal 23 fees for Patrick Ho.
24 THE DEFENDANT: Yes, Your Honor.
25 THE COURT: Who is that payment received from,

69

1 was that the law firm?
2 THE DEFENDANT: Received from Patrick Ho, Your
3 Honor.
4 THE COURT: Mr. Ho himself?
5 THE DEFENDANT: Yes.
6 THE COURT: Were you doing legal work for him
7 separate and apart from the law firm?
8 THE DEFENDANT: Yes, Your Honor. Well --
9 MR. CLARK: That wasn't through Boise Schiller, 10 Your Honor, Mr. Biden was engaged as an attorney.
11 THE COURT: Right. So that's why I asked. You 12 were doing work for him --
13 THE DEFENDANT: My own law firm, not as counsel.
14 THE COURT: So you had your own law firm as 15 well?
16 THE DEFENDANT: I think Owasco PT acted as a -- 17 acted as a law firm entity, yeah.
18 THE COURT: Okay.
19 THE DEFENDANT: I believe that's the case, but I 20 don't know that for a fact.
21 THE COURT: Okay. The final paragraph on the 22 second page of the exhibit says that you received a little 23 bit more than $2.6 million in business and consulting fees 24 from the company you formed with the CEO of the Chinese 25 business conglomerate and the Ukrainian energy company, and 70

1 -- I guess originally I was asking if that was in addition 2 to the money you had received from the -- if that was in 3 addition to the money you had received from the law firm, 4 but I think we clarified earlier that --
5 THE DEFENDANT: Yes, Your Honor.
6 THE COURT: So I guess what I'm confused about 7 is -- so is that $2.6 million, that was in 2018?
8 MR. CLARK: That's our understanding, Your
9 Honor.
10 THE COURT: But it says in the first paragraph 11 of the exhibit for the work that you did for the Ukrainian 12 company and the Chinese company and your domestic 13 businesses, it was $2.1 million.
14 MR. CLARK: Your Honor, I think actually for 15 this one, and again, we didn't write this, but we don't 16 dispute its accuracy, I think this may summarize a chain of 17 payments that was made over a couple of years.
18 MR. WISE: Your Honor, as I read that, the 19 reference in the first paragraph is to -- is income and it's 20 more than -- the language is more than 2.1 million in 2018, 21 and by contrast the paragraph Your Honor just pointed out, 22 it's talking about fees he generated at about 2.6 million, I 23 think there were expenses that were business expenses that 24 would be taken from those fees that would get you to a lower 25 income number that's north of 2.1 million.

71

1 THE COURT: Okay. In the first full paragraph 2 on the third one, it says after numerous programs and trips 3 to rehab, you got sober in May of 2019. Do you see that?

4 THE DEFENDANT: Yes, Your Honor.

5 THE COURT: When I asked you earlier when you
6 last used or were under the influence of a controlled 7 substance or a medication, you said June of 2019. What was 8 it that you did in June of 2019?

9 THE DEFENDANT: I was married on May of -- 10 May 17th of 2019, and that is my sobriety date.

11 THE COURT: When I asked you earlier --

12 THE DEFENDANT: I was being conservative, Your 13 Honor. I think in between that date to be technically and 14 completely honest from the day that I got married until 15 June 1st, I did have a drink or two.

16 THE COURT: Okay.

17 THE DEFENDANT: So I count my sobriety date at 18 least in the program that you attend as June 1st, so that's 19 why I did that.

20 THE COURT: You said the program you attend. I 21 thought you -- are you attending a --

22 THE DEFENDANT: No, a separate program that 23 required anonymity, Your Honor.

24 THE COURT: Okay. But I am just trying to make 25 sure that we don't --

72

1 THE DEFENDANT: No, no, I'm not saying that 2 there are any programs that I'm involved in right now, I'm 3 saying meetings that I go to, the sobriety date is often 4 quoted.

5 MR. CLARK: He draws a distinction between 6 treatment and a program.

7 THE COURT: Okay.

8 THE DEFENDANT: And it's not --

9 THE COURT: And I appreciate that, whether we 10 call it a treatment or something, you are doing something to 11 support your sobriety, is that correct?

12 THE DEFENDANT: Yes, Your Honor.

13 THE COURT: Okay. All right. Then that 14 paragraph says that you did not make preparations to file or 15 actually file your 2018 individual or corporate income tax 16 when it was due in 2019. Is that right?

17 THE DEFENDANT: Yes, Your Honor.

18 THE COURT: Okay. And it was due according to 19 this in October of 2019. Right?

20 THE DEFENDANT: Yes, Your Honor.

21 THE COURT: And you were sober at that time?

22 THE DEFENDANT: I was, Your Honor.

23 THE COURT: But you didn't file your taxes.

24 THE DEFENDANT: Yes, Your Honor, in putting my 25 life back together, it was a flood, an enormous amount of 73

1 problems and by the time I was able to find someone to be 2 able to help me, I was already past the deadline in which I 3 should not have gone past.

4 THE COURT: At the end of the next paragraph, it 5 says that in 2020, during the process of putting together 6 your 2017 and 2018 tax returns, you mischaracterized certain 7 personal expenses as legitimate business expenses. What's 8 that referencing?

9 MR. CLARK: Your Honor, it may be better if I 10 explain it because Mr. Biden is actually not that close to 11 the facts. In essence, in a very compressed time frame, 12 Mr. Biden was asked to identify for all of these tax years 13 that were being done from his credit cards and other bank 14 accounts what's a business expense and what is a personal 15 expense. And he was asked to go through charts and mark 16 them. And there are situations in which he made an error 17 with regard to marking business expenses or personal 18 expenses. In several instances, most of them relate to one 19 account, which was a business line of credit account, which 20 he and his accountants treated as business expenses but that 21 he never reviewed the actual records for because the 22 accountants couldn't get the records. So we concede that he 23 made mistakes, erroneous mistakes in categorizing some of 24 these business and personal expenses. And that's what it 25 refers to.

74

1 THE COURT: Do you know the approximate amount 2 of money of these mistakes?

3 MR. CLARK: That's what the discussion of the 4 dispute was. We see it in not minimizing, around $30,000 5 over the entirety of all the filings. I think the 6 government thinks it's higher. But that's part of what 7 we're going to shake out at sentencing. It is not massive 8 amounts of money from the perspective of these tax returns.
9 And as this points out I think in the next sentence, during 10 the same year that these errors were made, Mr. Biden's 11 accountants erroneously overreported his income by several 12 hundred thousand dollars. And so there is -- there are 13 errors going both ways in that year, some of them are these 14 mistakes, and that mistake by his accountants.

15 THE COURT: And just so I understand, are these 16 things that he made these mistakes and gave them to his 17 accountant and then they were corrected or he made these 18 mistakes, gave them to his accountant and then those 19 mistakes ended up in the filing that were ultimately made to 20 the Internal Revenue Service?

21 MR. CLARK: It was the latter, the accountants 22 didn't catch the mistakes.

23 THE COURT: And again, sir, this was done after 24 you were already sober?

25 THE DEFENDANT: Yes, Your Honor.

75

1 THE COURT: All right. In the next paragraph, 2 there are more references to self-assessed tax. Is that the 3 same as we discussed previously, the amount of tax that he 4 determined he owed?

5 MR. WISE: Yes, Your Honor.

6 THE COURT: And at the top of the last page, and 7 also in I guess the last paragraph, or maybe even all those 8 paragraphs, there is a reference to a third party who paid 9 your tax liability. Is it the same person who paid all of 10 the outstanding liability?

11 THE DEFENDANT: Yes, Your Honor. I took a loan 12 from that individual.

13 THE COURT: You took a loan?

14 THE DEFENDANT: Yes.

15 THE COURT: Do you make payments on that loan?

16 THE DEFENDANT: Not currently, Your Honor, but 17 it's a normal typical loan with terms and a time frame.

18 THE COURT: Okay. All right. Let's talk now 19 about the paragraph 9, the appellant waiver provision.
20 Mr. Biden, your agreement contains an appellant waiver 21 provision in paragraph 9. This waiver limits your ability 22 to appeal your sentence. Have you discussed this waiver 23 with your attorney?

24 THE DEFENDANT: Yes. Yes, I have Your Honor.

25 THE COURT: Are you satisfied with the advice

76

1 and counsel you have received with respect to the waiver?

2 THE DEFENDANT: Yes, I am, Your Honor.

3 THE COURT: Now, I can read the waiver to you if 4 you would like me to or you can tell me that you're 5 confident that you understand it. Do you want me to review 6 it with you?

7 THE DEFENDANT: I'm confident that I understand 8 it, Your Honor.

9 THE COURT: Do you understand that it is a broad 10 waiver provision and it leaves you with narrow appellant 11 rights should you disagree with your conviction or your 12 sentence?

13 THE DEFENDANT: Yes, Your Honor.

14 THE COURT: And that it leaves you little

15 ability to challenge your conviction or sentence?
16 THE DEFENDANT: Yes, Your Honor.
17 THE COURT: Do you understand that it is 18 unlikely that the conditions that would allow you to appeal 19 will occur and you will likely have no relief should you 20 receive a sentence that is different than the one that you 21 anticipate?
22 THE DEFENDANT: Yes, Your Honor.
23 THE COURT: All right. I find that the 24 Defendant has knowingly and voluntarily waived his appellat 25 rights.

1 Now, as Mr. Wise said earlier, I want to talk to 2 you a little about the sentencing process in federal court.
3 It's not required in a misdemeanor case, but I am going to 4 ask the United States Probation Office to prepare a 5 presentence investigation report to the Court before 6 sentencing. You and the government will have a chance to 7 review and challenge the facts in that report. Do you 8 understand that?
9 THE DEFENDANT: Yes, Your Honor.
10 THE COURT: It's been my responsibility under 11 the statute, 18 United States Code Section 3553(a) to impose 12 a sentence that is sufficient but not greater than necessary 13 to provide punishment and afford deterrents. Under the 14 current law I have to follow a three-step process. First, I 15 have to consider the sentencing guidelines that's been 16 calculated by the probation office and any objections to 17 those guidelines. Then, I have to rule on any motions for a 18 departure from those guidelines and explain how those 19 motions if granted would impact the guidelines. And 20 finally, I have to consider all of the factors in the 21 statute including personal factors that would help me to 22 determine what an appropriate sentence is. And that 23 sentence may, again, vary either upwards or downwards from 24 the guidelines.
25 The government has agreed not to oppose a

78

1 sentence of probation, but it's important that you
2 understand that without reviewing the presentence report, I 3 can't predict for you today whether I will agree that that's 4 an appropriate sentence or not. Do you understand that?
5 THE DEFENDANT: Yes, Your Honor.
6 THE COURT: Do you also understand that parole 7 has been abolished and that to the extent that you were 8 given any period of imprisonment, you would not be released 9 on parole from that imprisonment?
10 THE DEFENDANT: I understand that, Your Honor.
11 THE COURT: Do you understand that if you're 12 sentenced to a term of incarceration followed by a period of 13 supervised release or a period -- if you were given a period 14 of probation, if you are found in violation of the 15 conditions of your supervised release or your probation that 16 that may be revoked and you would have to serve additional 17 time in prison if you were imprisoned or if you were on 18 probation that you might have to serve time in prison?
19 THE DEFENDANT: Yes, Your Honor.
20 THE COURT: Do you understand that your sentence 21 may include payment of a fine or payment of restitution, and 22 it will include a mandatory special assessment for each 23 offense to which you plead guilty?
24 THE DEFENDANT: Yes, Your Honor.
25 THE COURT: Have you discussed with your counsel

79

1 what the sentencing guideline calculation might be for the 2 offenses to which you are pleading guilty?
3 THE DEFENDANT: Yes, Your Honor.
4 THE COURT: And do you understand that if I
5 impose a sentence that is harsher or longer or more severe 6 than the one that you may anticipate, you will still be 7 bound by your plea and will not have the right to withdraw 8 it on that basis?
9 THE DEFENDANT: Yes, Your Honor.

10 THE COURT: All right. Now I want to talk about 11 some of the rights that you waive if you plead guilty. Do 12 you understand that you have the right to plead not guilty 13 to this offense, to persist in your plea of not guilty and 14 to have a trial by jury on the offense during which you 15 would also have the right to the assistance of counsel and 16 the right to see and hear all of the witnesses and have them 17 cross-examined on your behalf?

18 THE DEFENDANT: Yes, Your Honor.

19 THE COURT: The standard of proving guilt is 20 beyond a reasonable doubt and it is the highest standard of 21 proof in our justice system. If the government failed to 22 establish your guilt beyond a reasonable doubt, you would be 23 acquitted of the charges against you. Do you understand 24 that?

25 THE DEFENDANT: Yes, Your Honor.

80

1 THE COURT: Do you understand that at trial you
2 would have the right on your own part to decline to testify 3 or to put on any evidence at all and that if you decided not 4 to testify or to put on any evidence, that could not be used 5 against you?

6 THE DEFENDANT: Yes, Your Honor.

7 THE COURT: Do you understand that if the case 8 were to go to trial, it would be the government's burden to 9 prove to the jury, again, beyond a reasonable doubt, each of 10 the essential elements of the offenses charge and the jury 11 would have unanimously agree as to your guilt?

12 THE DEFENDANT: Yes, Your Honor.

13 THE COURT: Do you further understand that by 14 entering a plea of guilty, there will be no trial and you 15 will have waived and given up your right to trial by jury as 16 well as the rights associated with that trial?

17 THE DEFENDANT: Yes, Your Honor.

18 THE COURT: I'm going to ask the prosecutor to 19 summarize for us what the government would be prepared to 20 prove if the case were to go to trial.

21 MR. WISE: Your Honor, I have read in its 22 entirety the factual statement that we would be prepared to 23 prove.

24 THE COURT: All right. Do you want to tell me 25 how that meets the essential elements?

81

1 MR. WISE: Yes, Your Honor.

2 THE COURT: I mean, I can figure it out, but I
3 think it's probably worthwhile you telling me.

4 MR. WISE: The first element, the Defendant had 5 a duty to pay a tax. The Defendant earned substantial 6 income as the factual statement points out. And we can go 7 with -- as Your Honor has pointed out, there are several 8 places in the factual statement where it identified where he 9 obviously earned, looking at the first paragraph, 10 2.3 million in 2017 and 2.1 million in 2018, he therefore 11 had a duty to pay a tax on that income. That is the highest 12 level of summary.

13 The tax was not paid at the time required by 14 law. Again, even when he received an extension, the tax was 15 due in April of 2018 for calendar year 2017 and in April of 16 2019 for calendar year 2018. And finally, the failure to 17 pay was willful. And the Plea Agreement statement of facts 18 describes that despite his addiction issues, he was able to 19 generate significant amounts of income and made financial 20 decisions about how to spend that money, and that those 21 decisions did not include meeting his obligations to pay his 22 taxes.

23 THE COURT: All right. Mr. Biden, is there 24 anything you wish to challenge or amend in the government's 25 recitation of proof?

82

1 THE DEFENDANT: No, Your Honor.

2 THE COURT: Do you disagree with any of the 3 government's factual recitations?

4 THE DEFENDANT: No, Your Honor.

5 THE COURT: Mr. Clark, do you have any 6 objections or concerns with the government's recitation of 7 proof?

8 MR. CLARK: I do not, Your Honor.

9 THE COURT: All right. Now at this point I 10 would normally ask Mr. Biden how he pleads, but as we've 11 already discussed, the Diversion Agreement is out there in a 12 felony case, it is cross-referenced in the Memorandum of 13 Plea Agreement. The Plea Agreement is cross-referenced in 14 the Diversion Agreement, so before I ask him how he pleads, 15 I need to understand -- well, ask him how he pleads or 16 decide if I can accept the Plea Agreement, I need to 17 understand the Diversion Agreement.

18 So the felony gun charge here is a bit unusual, 19 and we don't usually make diversion agreements public. I 20 don't usually see a diversion agreement as the parties up 21 here have hinted, but in fact you all did send it to me and 22 it is referenced in the agreement that is before me in the 23 tax case.

24 So it's a little bit unique in that I have a 25 copy of the Diversion Agreement and that the Diversion

83

1 Agreement contains what I view to be some nonstandard terms
2 like the broad immunity and a term that invokes the Court or 3 involves the Court as part of that agreement.

4 So given all that, Mr. Wise, why don't you go
5 ahead and summarize the terms of the Diversion Agreement 6 given that the parties have agreed to make it public.

7 MR. WISE: Yes, Your Honor. The first under 8 Roman numeral one, the parties to the Diversion Agreement 9 are the United States of America by and through the United 10 States Attorney's Office for the District of Delaware and 11 Robert Hunter Biden.

12 Roman two describes the terms and conditions of 13 the agreement. Paragraph 1 provides that it's for a 14 two-year period, twenty-four months beginning on the date of 15 approval of this agreement, and that would be when the chief 16 probation officer, Ms. Brey signs it, unless there is a 17 breach as set forth in paragraphs 13 and 14.

18 Paragraph 2 provides that this 24-month period
19 will be known as the diversion period.

20 Paragraph 3 provides that Biden shall waive 21 indictment in relation to the information filed in the gun 22 case, which again is 23cr61 which charges him with one count 23 of knowingly possessing a firearm while an unlawful user or 24 person addicted to a controlled substance in violation of 25 Title 18 United States Code Section 922(g)(3) and 924(a)(2).

1 And the relevant year for the conduct is 2018.

2 Paragraph 4 provides that if Biden complies with 3 his obligations under the agreement, then the United States
4 within thirty days after the expiration of the diversion 5 period will file a motion with the Court seeking the 6 dismissal of the information.

7 Paragraph 5, Biden agrees that the United States
8 has probable cause to bring the charge in the Information 9 and that the charge is not frivolous or made in bad faith.
10 He also agrees at a future time the United States should 11 move to dismiss the information pursuant to this agreement, 12 he will not be a prevailing party with regard to the 13 Information and he waives any possible claims to attorney 14 fees or litigation expenses arising out of the investigation 15 or prosecution of this case.

16 Paragraph 6 provides that in light of the fact 17 that Biden has accepted responsibility for the actions 18 referred to in the statement of facts as Attachment A to 19 this agreement and taken into consideration Biden's candid 20 acknowledgment of his historical drug use as well as his 21 current sobriety and in consideration for the other terms in 22 the agreement, the United States shall divert this matter in 23 the manner set forth in this agreement pursuant to the terms 24 and conditions also set forth in the agreement.

25 Paragraph 7 provides that Biden agrees to waive

85

1 all defenses based on statute of limitations with respect to 2 charges in the information and any other federal firearm
 3 charges that could be brought with respect to the conduct 4 set forth in the statement of fact which again is Attachment
 5 A. And he agrees that the applicable statute of limitation 6 period for any charges arising under the firearms purchase 7 shall be tolled during the diversion period. He agrees not 8 to assert any speedy trial rights under the Sixth Amendment 9 or Federal Rule of Criminal Procedure 48(b) B or any local 10 rule here in the District of Delaware.

11 Paragraph 8 provides that it is the intent of 12 this agreement for Biden to agree to be subject to the 13 jurisdiction of and venue in the United States District 14 Court for the District of Delaware with respect to the 15 charge set forth in the information and for any federal 16 charges arising out of the firearms purchase set forth in 17 the statement of facts.

18 Paragraph 9 and its subparagraph are the 19 commitments and undertakings of Biden and that includes not 20 purchasing, possessing, attempting to purchase firearms as 21 that term is defined in the relevant statute during the 22 diversion period, consent to a permanent entry in the 23 National Instant Criminal Background Check System such that 24 he will be denied via NICS if he attempts to legally 25 purchase another firearm.

86

1 And then paragraph C, I'm not going to read the 2 entire paragraph, but it's a provision that the gun in 3 question is forfeited to the United States.

4 Starting at paragraph 10 --

5 THE COURT: Could I ask to you pause for one 6 second. I forgot my glasses and I'm going to ask someone in 7 the back to get my glasses, but I didn't want her to open 8 the door and freak people out.

9 All right. Apologies, go ahead.

10 MR. WISE: Starting at paragraph 10, or in 11 paragraph 10 and subparagraph are additional conditions 12 applicable to the diversion period and these include that 13 Biden is subject to supervision as directed by U.S.
 14 Probation and Pretrial Services; that he continue to 15 actively seek employment; that he refrain from unlawfully 16 possessing controlled substance; that he refrain from using 17 alcohol; that he submit to substance abuse testing and 18 participate in substance abuse treatment as directed by the 19 U.S. Probation and Pretrial Services Office in this 20 district; that he submits to fingerprinting by the FBI and 21 it describes what will be done with that fingerprint and how 22 it will be preserved for a time; that he communicate in 23 writing all international travel plans and provide 24 documentation, if requested, to U.S. Probation and Pretrial 25 and that he not commit a violation of any federal, state or 87

1 local law.

2 Paragraph 11, in paragraph 11 Biden acknowledges
 3 and agrees to the statement of facts that are Attachment A 4 to this agreement and he agrees that they're truthful and 5 accurate.

6 Paragraph 12, Biden agrees that neither he nor 7 anyone else at his direction will make any statement in 8 litigation or otherwise repudiating or contradicting the 9 statement of fact. If the United States believes such a 10 contrary statement has been made, and such statement 11 constitutes a knowing material breach, then the United 12 States may seek a determination regarding such alleged 13 breach pursuant to the procedures set forth in paragraph 14.

14 Starting in paragraph 13, it lays out the 15 procedure if there is a breach. First, paragraph 13. Biden 16 agrees that a knowing failure to abide by or fully perform 17 any of the terms, promises, or agreements set forth in this 18 Agreement shall constitute a breach of this Agreement.

19 Paragraph 14 provides that if the United States
 20 believes that a knowing material breach of this Agreement

21 has occurred, it may seek a determination by the United 22 States District Judge for the District of Delaware with 23 responsibility for supervision of this agreement. Upon 24 notice to Biden the United States may seek a determination 25 on a preponderance of the evidence presented to such

88

1 District Judge. Biden shall have the right to present 2 evidence to rebut any such claim. If after that process the 3 judge overseeing such process makes a final determination 4 that Biden has committed a knowing material breach of this 5 agreement, then the United States may elect from two 6 remedies that are specified in the agreement depending on 7 the nature and seriousness testify breach.

8 Remedy 1, which is a sub A of paragraph 14 is 9 the United States may give Biden a specific time period in 10 which to remedy the breach. If the United States determines 11 that Biden has failed to remedy the breach during the 12 specified time period, then the United States may elect 13 Remedy 2. Remedy 2 is the United States may prosecute Biden 14 for any federal criminal violation in which the United 15 States has knowledge including crimes relating to the 16 conduct set forth in the statement of facts, which is 17 Attachment A, and that includes obstruction of justice and 18 any such prosecution is not time barred by any statute of 19 limitation on the date of signing of this agreement, 20 notwithstanding the statute of limitation between the 21 signing and the commencement of such prosecution.

22 And finally, the United States does not require 23 to offer Remedy 1 before proceeding to Remedy 2 if in its 24 sole determination the nature and the serious of the breach 25 warrants termination of the agreement.

89

1 Paragraph 15 is the agreement not to prosecute.
 2 The language, the United States agrees not to criminally 3 prosecute Biden outside the terms of this agreement for any 4 federal crimes encompassed by the attached statement of 5 facts, Attachment A, and the statement of facts attached as 6 Exhibit 1 to the Memorandum of Plea Agreement filed this 7 same day. This Agreement does not provide any protection 8 against prosecution for any further conduct by Biden or by 9 any of his affiliated businesses. Obviously this paragraph 10 has been orally modified by counsel for Mr. Biden and we 11 would -- I'm not going to attempt to paraphrase it. I don't 12 want to make the record muddy. The statement by counsel is 13 obviously as Your Honor acknowledged a modification of this 14 provision, and that we believe is binding.

15 Paragraph 16, starting paragraph 16, there are 16 general terms and conditions, the parties consented to the 17 public disclosure of this agreement, and shall be publicly 18 filed. The parties stipulate and agree that the conduct set 19 forth in the statement of facts does not constitute relevant 20 conduct for the offenses, to the tax offenses, which Your 21 Honor has identified as a similar provision in the Plea 22 Agreement, that the firearms offense is not relevant conduct 23 for the tax charge.

24 Paragraph 18 this agreement may be executed in 25 counterparts, each of which constitutes an original and all

90

1 of which constitutes one and the same agreement.

2 And paragraph 19 is an incorporation agreement 3 like in the Plea Agreement, this agreement sets forth all of 4 the terms of the agreement between the United States and 5 Biden. It constitutes a complete and final agreement
 6 between the United States and Biden in this matter. There 7 are no other agreements written or otherwise modifying the 8 terms, conditions or obligations of this agreement. No 9 future modifications or additions of this agreement in whole 10 or in part shall be valid unless they are set forth in 11 writing or signed by the United States, and Biden and 12 Biden's counsel.

13 THE COURT: All right. Thank you.

14 Mr. Clark, any corrections you want to make?

15 MR. CLARK: No, Your Honor.
 16 THE COURT: The information charges Mr. Biden 17 with violation of 18 United States Code 922(g)(3). Does 18 anyone have any concerns about the constitutionality of that 19 charge in light of the recent Third Circuit Range case?
 20 MR. WISE: No, Your Honor.
 21 MR. CLARK: Your Honor, I note our -- that's one 22 of the reasons the parties I think are in the disposition we 23 are in. We don't waive in a later prosecution any 24 challenges on that.
 25 THE COURT: I completely understand that. That 91

1 was kind of why I was asking the government the question.
 2 So if 922(g)(3), which makes it unlawful for a 3 drug user addict to possess a gun were found by some court 4 to be unconstitutional, what happens to the Diversion
 5 Agreement?
 6 MR. WISE: Your Honor, the Diversion Agreement 7 is a contract between the parties so it's in effect until 8 it's either breached or a determination, period.
 9 MR. CLARK: I can tell you our intention would 10 be to abide by the agreement and only raise such 11 constitutional determining at such time that somebody tried 12 to bring any charges on this, otherwise it's an agreement 13 between the parties. We are going to honor the agreement.
 14 THE COURT: I have had one or two cases 15 involving a person struggling with addiction who bought a 16 gun, we usually see a felony charge for false statement.
 17 The Defendant has admitted that his statement was false, but 18 he wasn't charged. Again, I'm not trying to get into the 19 purview of the prosecutor, and I understand the separation 20 of powers, it's in your discretion, but I just want to ask, 21 does the government have any concern about not bringing the 22 false statement charge in light of our discussion of 23 922(g)(3) and the constitutionality of that charge.
 24 MR. WISE: No, Your Honor.
 25 THE COURT: Paragraph 7 says that the statute of 92

1 limitations is waived. Can you just tell me when would the 2 statute of limitation be waived on a charge for false
 3 statement if the Diversion Agreement were not in place?
 4 MR. CLARK: When would it run, Your Honor?
 5 THE COURT: I understand it's tolled by the 6 agreement. I have concerns about the agreement, that's why 7 I'm asking these questions, so if the agreement weren't 8 there.
 9 MR. CLARK: It would be October 2023.
 10 MR. WISE: October 12th, 2023.
 11 THE COURT: All right. Thank you.
 12 All right. Now I have reviewed the case law and 13 I have reviewed the statute and I had understood that the 14 decision to offer the defendant, any defendant a pretrial 15 diversion rest squarely with the prosecutor and consistent 16 with that, you all have told me repeatedly that's a separate 17 agreement, there is no place for me to sign off on it, and 18 as I think I mentioned earlier, usually I don't see those 19 agreements. But you all did send it to me and as we've 20 discussed, some of it seems like it could be relevant to the 21 plea.
 22 One provision in particular stands out to me, 23 and that is paragraph 14. That paragraph says if the United 24 States believes that a knowing material breach of this 25 agreement has occurred, it may seek a determination by the

93

1 United States District Judge for the District of Delaware
 2 with responsibility for the supervision of this agreement.
 3 It then goes on to say that if I do find a breach, then the 4 government can either give the Defendant time to remedy the 5 breach or prosecute him for the crime that is the subject of 6 the information or any other that falls within the language 7 of the agreement. Do I have that understanding correct?
 8 MR. CLARK: That's my understanding of the 9 provision, Your Honor.

10 THE COURT: So can you tell me what's 11 contemplated by that, how it would work?
 12 MR. WISE: So, Your Honor, obviously the 13 Diversion Agreement covers offenses related to firearms, so 14 if there was a breach, then he could be charged with -- the 15 offenses related to that firearm as well as perjury, 16 obstruction of justice, and any prosecution not barred by 17 the statute of limitations related to that.
 18 MR. CLARK: I think Your Honor may be asking the 19 functionality of your involvement. And the concept was 20 along the lines of a VOSR where a situation is brought to 21 the Court and the Court would make a factual determination 22 in the first instance that there was a violation of 23 supervised -- I mean, diversion is not supervised release, 24 but in some senses it can be, and so the idea was that the 25 Court would determine whether or not there was a violation

94

1 and then the government would move on to a remedy.
 2 THE COURT: First it got my attention because 3 you keep telling me that I have no role, I shouldn't be 4 reading this thing, I shouldn't be concerned about what's in 5 these provisions, but you have agreed that I will do that, 6 but you didn't ask me for sign off, so do you have any 7 precedent for that?
 8 MR. WISE: Your Honor, no. No, I don't have 9 precedent.
 10 THE COURT: As I read it, tell me if I'm reading 11 this correctly, that under the agreement as you all have 12 drafted it the only way that charges could ever be brought 13 is if I have the hearing that you all agreed that I have to 14 have, right?
 15 MR. WISE: Yes.
 16 THE COURT: So if I don't have a hearing or make 17 a finding, no criminal charges can be pursued for the gun 18 charge or any other federal charge within the scope of the 19 agreement not to be prosecuted, right?
 20 MR. WISE: I believe that's right, Your Honor.
 21 THE COURT: So is there some requirement that 22 you have that I have to make that finding that you all 23 agreed that I would without asking?
 24 MR. WISE: Is there some -- 25 THE COURT: Requirement that says I have to make

95

1 that finding?
 2 MR. WISE: No.
 3 THE COURT: And you don't have any precedent for 4 that, right?
 5 MR. WISE: No, Your Honor.
 6 THE COURT: Do you have any authority that any 7 Court has ever accepted that or said that they would do 8 that?
 9 MR. WISE: No, Your Honor, this was crafted to 10 suit the facts and circumstances.
 11 THE COURT: I'm concerned that that provision 12 makes me a gatekeeper to criminal charges and puts me in the 13 middle of a decision as to whether to bring a charge. And 14 we already talked about separation of powers and that choice 15 as to whether to bring charges is not -- that's the 16 executive branch, not the judicial branch, so is this even 17 constitutional?
 18 MR. CLARK: I believe it is, Your Honor, because 19 what the structure makes clear is that Your Honor is just 20 finding facts.
 21 THE COURT: But no charges -- usually in these 22 agreements, right, Mr. Clark, the prosecutor says we think 23 he breached, and I don't mean to point it out, I'm not 24 saying you're going to breach.
 25 MR. CLARK: I understand.

96

1 THE COURT: We're doing a hypothetical.
 2 MR. CLARK: I understand the question.
 3 THE COURT: The prosecutor says there is a

4 breach, Judge, we got to move forward on the information.
 5 You then come forward and you're like, Judge, he didn't 6 breach, review this, okay, so that's the standard. The 7 government has -- the executive branch has already made a 8 determination we are going to proceed with the charges.
 9 Now, the government cannot make the decision to proceed with 10 charges absent involving the Court.

11 MR. CLARK: Respectfully, Your Honor, I don't 12 think that's the way it's structured and I do think the way 13 it's structured may get some way past your concern. What it 14 is is that it's not that the government has decided to bring 15 charges, it's that the government believes there is a 16 breach. In paragraph 14, the government brings the breach 17 to Your Honor and says we need a determination of whether 18 there is a breach. So it's not a question that we've 19 decided what to opt into, we've decided what to do, we want 20 your -- it's Your Honor, we believe there is a factual 21 dispute between the parties, not a breach, we would like you 22 to make a factual determination.

23 THE COURT: Why can't you do that in the normal 24 way? As I read this, the government has no discretion to 25 bring charges if it believes that a breach has occurred

97

1 unless I opine.

2 MR. CLARK: Can we approach and discuss one
 3 issue with Your Honor?

4 THE COURT: You mean because it's confidential?

5 MR. CLARK: Yeah.

6 THE COURT: Okay. You're going to have to make 7 -- you're going to have to make a showing as to why. As I 8 understand, once we're in court in the Third Circuit, it's 9 essentially strict scrutiny, so can you explain to me why 10 this is something that cannot go on the record?

11 MR. CLARK: It relates to the plea discussions 12 between the parties generally which aren't discussed 13 publicly.

14 THE COURT: I will allow you to have -- we will 15 have a discussion on the sealed portion, but you're going to 16 have to convince me that it needs to be maintained as 17 sealed. All right? Because I can't -- it's hard for me to 18 say that in the abstract if you're saying that's a plea 19 discussion.

20 MR. CLARK: Your Honor, let me try to handle it 21 separately. There was a desire because of there being as 22 Your Honor has seen a tremendous amount of political drag 23 with this Defendant that the normal mechanism that might 24 take place would have the protection of the Court not in the 25 discretion to bring a charge, but in finding a breach, and

98

1 so that that wouldn't be something that would become more
 2 politicized, but rather would be something that the parties 3 could rely on, someone we consider a neutral arbiter to 4 determine the breach, not the charge.

5 THE COURT: I understand. Look, I knew why you 6 brought it, okay, I could see why you would want that 7 provision in here, but I don't -- you are putting me -- the 8 government, the executive branch has the discretion to bring 9 charges. Here, the government does not have discretion to 10 continue to pursue this charge or any other charge unless 11 you include the Court. And that seems like it's getting 12 outside of my lane in terms of what I am allowed to do. And 13 thus, I have concerns about the constitutionality of this 14 provision. That gives me concerns about the 15 constitutionality of this agreement because there doesn't 16 seem to be a separate severability, and that gives me 17 concerns about whether the Defendant has the protection from 18 prosecution that he thinks he's getting if this agreement 19 turns out to be not worth the paper it's written on.

20 MR. CLARK: Your Honor, all --

21 THE COURT: My concern is, and part of what I 22 have to do is knowing and voluntary, and I can't let him -- 23 I'm not convinced this is a plea under subsection B, but 24 even if it is, and all I have to say is, is it knowing and 25 voluntary. I can't let him plead to something if he thinks

99

1 he has protection and he doesn't.
 2 MR. CLARK: Absolutely, Your Honor. I think the 3 analogy to a VOSR is not a bad analogy. The government 4 comes to the Court and it says Your Honor, we believe there 5 has been a violation of supervised release. Unless you, 6 Judge, make a factual finding that that's happened, we can't 7 do what we would normally do with regards to this Defendant.
 8 Right? And again, it's the fact and then the discretion.
 9 Right? And so here it's very analogous to that process 10 which is not a violation of separation of powers. I 11 understand what your Your Honor is saying.
 12 THE COURT: I think I might need a little bit
 13 more on this because it is confusing to me. But let me -- 14 or concerning I should say more than confusing.
 15 Let me ask you this, if that provision violates 16 the constitution, what happens to the Diversion Agreement?
 17 MR. CLARK: If that provision violates the 18 constitution, the diversion -- first of all, I'm not aware 19 of a manner in which we can challenge the Diversion 20 Agreement, but if it did, I think we would say that, if it's 21 unconstitutional, right -- 22 THE COURT: The way I'm seeing it is the 23 government decides -- not to be politicized, the government 24 decides we're going to bring a charge and you say no, that's 25 prohibited by the Diversion Agreement, and the government

100

1 says that Diversion Agreement is unconstitutional. You
 2 don't have the protection of it. So I'm not going to not 3 voice my concerns when I think that there are -- you know, 4 you telling me we're not going to challenge it, that really 5 doesn't --
 6 MR. CLARK: No, I'm not saying that, Your Honor.
 7 Under those circumstances we would have a contractual 8 dispute about this contract between the government and us 9 and that would get litigated like any other contractual 10 dispute would get litigated. That's what this is.
 11 THE COURT: But what if it is unconstitutional,
 12 what happens to the Diversion Agreement?
 13 MR. CLARK: I think it's valid but for this 14 provision.
 15 THE COURT: Is there a severability provision?
 16 MR. CLARK: There isn't, but there is nothing 17 that says it is a unitary contract either, it's kind of half 18 and half. There is no merger clause or severability clause, 19 so in my -- it's a toss up on that, right, Your Honor.
 20 THE COURT: So if I say that I am not going to 21 do what is requested, what you all have agreed that I am 22 going to do, what happens to the Diversion Agreement?
 23 MR. CLARK: If you're saying it right now in a 24 binding manner --
 25 THE COURT: I'm just asking you, I'm not making

101

1 a finding, I'm asking you because I'm trying to exercise due 2 deliberation and consideration and make sure that we don't 3 make a misstep.
 4 So Mr. Wise, if I say I'm not doing it, your 5 contract has an impossibility in there because nothing can 6 happen, I understand Mr. Clark might say that's fine, Your 7 Honor, but the government, what happens if I say I'm not 8 going to do that, you can agree I'm going to do it, but I'm 9 not?
 10 MR. WISE: So in negotiating these terms we 11 obviously agreed to -- as Your Honor has pointed out, the 12 executive branch has the authority to bring charges, we have 13 agreed to a limitation, if you will, that is predicated on 14 the Court taking certain action. If the Court declines to 15 take the action contemplated by the agreement, we would have 16 to examine whether there were other ways to seek the 17 enforcement of the agreement.
 18 MR. CLARK: And there is a way to modify the 19 agreement obviously between the parties, Your Honor, so by 20 written modification we could modify that provision if Your 21 Honor said I won't participate.

 22 THE COURT: All right. So what are you talking 23 about?
 24 MR. CLARK: I'm saying that if Your Honor said 25 I've determined that this isn't proper, I'm not going to 182

1 participate, we would work on provision, paragraph 19 which 2 says that, you know, we can modify or add to the agreement 3 with the written consent of the parties and we would come up 4 with an alternative dispute resolution system.

5 I personally, Your Honor, I mean, again, I don't 6 mean to hang everything on a VOSR analogy, I have done many 7 of them in my life, I don't think it is unconstitutional, I 8 think it's very fair question from the Court, I don't think 9 it is, but I think if the Court were to determine it was not 10 appropriate, we would modify the contract and you would 11 determine on another dispute resolution.

12 MR. WEISE: The analogy that I would offer, Your 13 Honor, VOSR's statutory framework is many U.S. Attorney's 14 offices' practice around the country have proffer agreements 15 or Queen for a day agreements where a defendant -- a 16 defendant, a witness, a target will sit down, make certain 17 statements pursuant to an agreement and some of those 18 agreements have provisions that in the event that the 19 government believes there is a breach that they lied, they 20 will go to a judicial officer for a determination and if 21 that is the case and the agreement is deemed void, then 22 charges, for instance, 1001 charges making a false statement 23 to a law enforcement officer could be brought. So I think 24 that's a similar -- and those agreements unlike VOSR are not 25 governed by an elaborate statutory scheme, they're contracts

183

1 between United States and individuals, but it contemplates a 2 role for a judicial officer that then affects the ability of 3 the government to bring charges.

4 THE COURT: I take your points on the analogy to 5 the VOSR, but I know, I asked if there is any precedent for 6 this, I was told no. I was asked if there is any authority
 7 for this, I was told no. And I get the analogy, but I don't 8 think that I can on the fly make the analogy that you're 9 asking me to make or even, you know, you're telling me that 10 this is -- so that this is appropriate. So I am not sure -- 11 I'm not sure what to do with that. It may be that you're 12 correct, that that's an appropriate analogy, but it may be 13 that you are not.

14 MR. CLARK: May I propose something, Your Honor?
 15 You don't have to -- there is no action again, not to -- I 16 know you don't necessarily want to hear that all the time, 17 that you have to take with a regular Diversion Agreement.
 18 Can I propose that Your Honor can take time with regard to 19 this provision, inform the parties, and if you find that the 20 provision is improper, and we can even brief it to you, I'll 21 commit with the government that we'll work under 22 paragraph 19 to implement another procedure. But again, I 23 don't think that needs to hold up today's disposition.

24 THE COURT: The problem that I have, I'm not 25 sure that it doesn't. Again, you all are telling me just

184

1 rubber stamp the agreement, Your Honor, because all we're 2 doing is recommending a plea. But it seems like the 3 argument you're making is form over substance. What's funny 4 to me is you put me right smack in the middle of the 5 Diversion Agreement that I should have no role in, you plop 6 meet right in there and then on the thing that I would 7 normally have the ability to sign off on or look at in the 8 context of a Plea Agreement, you just take it out and you 9 say Your Honor, don't pay any attention to that provision 10 not to prosecute because we put it in an agreement that's 11 beyond your ability.

12 So this is what I am going to do. These 13 agreements are not straightforward and they contain some 14 atypical provisions. I am not criticizing you for coming up

15 with those, I think that you have worked hard to come up 16 with creative ways to deal with this. But I am not in a 17 position where I can decide to accept or reject the Plea 18 Agreement, so I need to defer it.
 19 First, I don't know which rule this falls under.
 20 I am not convinced that it is actually a plea under 21 subsection B, which you all suggest is me rubber stamping 22 the plea if it's a knowing plea. But even if it were, I 23 have testimony under oath both that the Defendant is 24 concerned about ensuring that he has immunity from 25 additional charges, and also that well, he doesn't need that 185

1 in terms of the Plea Agreement. So I need to think about 2 that.
 3 Additionally, I need some understanding as to 4 why this is a plea under B and that my concern about the 5 form over substance of the agreement not to prosecute is not 6 valid, or why I should do this. So I would like some 7 briefing, additional briefing on why subsection B is the 8 appropriate section, and if I were to determine that this 9 actually is a plea under subsection A, it would be helpful
 10 to me to have your views on what it is that makes this plea 11 acceptable, because I'm not saying that it is not, but 12 nobody seems to really have given me that what I would need 13 if I were to determine that as I read this as a whole, I 14 think that that really is what is in front of me. So I need 15 that.
 16 And then I would like as you offered, Mr. Clark, 17 you guys can go back and work on whether or not you can take 18 out that provision and come up with something else that's 19 acceptable, and while you do that, you might, though I'm not 20 trying to tell you how to negotiate the Diversion Agreement, 21 you might fix that one paragraph that you have orally 22 modified today.
 23 I would like to understand why that provision, 24 if you want it to go forward is appropriate, and why I am 25 not doing something that gets me outside of my lane in terms

186

1 of my branch of government if I were to do what is being 2 requested.
 3 Does that make sense?
 4 MR. CLARK: That makes sense, Your Honor. I
 5 think that the parties have been very eager to resolve this 6 matter, and it has been pending for an extended period of 7 time.
 8 THE COURT: It hasn't been pending for that long 9 a period of time, I know that when you guys first called, 10 you said you would send me the agreements on a Tuesday or a 11 Thursday and you wanted to have the hearing within a few 12 days. I couldn't accommodate that schedule, but the fact 13 is, this is a -- this is our normal course of timing of 14 things and so I understand, and I certainly understand why 15 you want to get this resolved, but I am not in a position 16 where I can do that now. So if you guys want to tell me 17 when you're thinking you can get me the papers that I'm 18 asking for.
 19 MR. WISE: Your Honor, we would -- what I would 20 anticipate is we'll need to order the transcript from 21 today's proceeding to address some of the issues you have 22 raised to make sure we're precisely addressing what you're 23 asking us to, so I think building in a little bit of time to 24 get the transcript and then a reasonable amount of time 25 after that to submit, I would say at least fourteen days.

187

1 MR. CLARK: Fine with us, Your Honor.
 2 MR. WISE: I would also say, Your Honor, we're 3 not asking the Court to rubber stamp anything.
 4 THE COURT: It certainly sounds like it. Tell 5 me again what you think my role is for a plea under 6 11(b)(1)(B).
 7 MR. WISE: It's not what I think the Court's 8 role --
 9 THE COURT: I agree, I read the rule, the rule

10 says I couldn't accept or reject, you're saying it's not a 11 rubber stamp, so what is it I do?
 12 MR. WISE: You don't take action on the Plea 13 Agreement. What Rule 11(c) says is for Rule (c)(1)(B) the 14 Court must advise the Defendant that the Defendant has no 15 right to withdraw the plea if the Court does not follow the 16 recommendation or request. So the rule does not contemplate 17 the Court taking any position on the agreement if it's a 18 (c)(1)(B), rather the rule requires the Court to give that 19 advisement, and that is the extent of the Court's role. And 20 this has been briefed not in this circuit, but in other 21 circuits and we can certainly include that, that's not my 22 view --
 23 THE COURT: I certainly understand what -- if 24 it's a plea under subsection (c)(1)(B), I am not going to 25 just agree with you as to the limits of my role. My problem

108

1 is I am not -- I am not sure, and I need to understand the 2 propriety, it may very well be that it is appropriate, but 3 as I said, it did catch my attention, you throw me in there, 4 Judge, you're the gatekeeper and then you take me out of the 5 other aspects of the -- you throw me into the Diversion 6 Agreement and then you take me out of the Memorandum of Plea
 7 Agreement.
 8 So I cannot accept the Plea Agreement today. I 9 mean, based on what you just said, Mr. Wise, Mr. Clark, if 10 you want, I can accept a guilty plea while I defer my 11 decision on the Plea Agreement, which the Supreme Court said 12 is appropriate in the Hyde case, 520 U.S. 670 (1997), if 13 your client wants to plead guilty pending my determination 14 on the Plea Agreement.
 15 MR. CLARK: We're pleading guilty pursuant to 16 the Plea Agreement, Your Honor, so that would not be 17 something that we would do.
 18 THE COURT: Does that mean that I need to take a 19 plea of not guilty?
 20 MR. CLARK: I believe you do, Your Honor.
 21 THE COURT: All right. So Mr. Biden, I know you 22 want to get this over with, and I'm sorry, but I do want to 23 make sure that I am careful in my view of this. So I do 24 need some more information. And part of that is making sure 25 that your plea gets you what you think it gets and part of 109

1 it is making sure that I do justice as I'm required to do in 2 this court. So I need some additional information. I'm not 3 saying I'm not going to reject the plea, I'm not saying I'm 4 going to accept the Plea Agreement. I need more 5 information.
 6 So at this point I'm just going to ask you, 7 without the Plea Agreement, without me saying that I would 8 agree to the Plea Agreement, how do you plead to the charges 9 that we have been discussing?
 10 THE DEFENDANT: Not guilty, Your Honor.
 11 THE COURT: Thank you.
 12 So I will look forward to the parties' 13 submissions. And after we have a chance to review those, we 14 will either issue an order as to what we're planning to do 15 with the plea or we'll have a status conference or we'll get 16 back here.
 17 Do we need to do anything else? I know that we 18 talked about we were on the clock now. Can we exclude the 19 time, that gives me some time to look at these for 20 thirty days or not?
 21 MR. CLARK: I would imagine the Court can 22 exclude the time for briefing, yeah.
 23 MR. WISE: We agree, Your Honor.
 24 THE COURT: So we will do that. And after we 25 see it, we will take a look and get back to you.

110

1 Mr. Biden, I need you to just stick around for a 2 minute after we adjourn. I need you -- my deputy is going 3 to ask you to sign the release order that we talked about,

4 and then I need you to go downstairs to the marshals for 5 processing and to catch up with probation.

6 All right?

7 THE DEFENDANT: Yes, Your Honor.

8 THE COURT: Anything else that we need to talk 9 about while we are here today?

10 MR. WISE: Not on behalf of the United States.

11 MR. CLARK: No, Your Honor.

12 THE COURT: Thank you.

13 (Court adjourned at 1:14 p.m.)
