Mr. Edward Siskel
Assistant to the President and White House Counsel
The White House
1600 Pennsylvania Ave. N.W.
Washington, D.C. 20500

Dear Mr. Siskel:

Attached to this letter is a subpoena requiring Annie Tomasini, Deputy Chief of Staff, to appear for a deposition before the Committee on Oversight and Accountability. This subpoena is issued pursuant to Rule XI.2(m)(1)(B) of the Rules of the House of Representatives and Rule 12(g) of the Oversight Committee's rules.

Subsequent to the President's "disastrous"¹ debate performance in June, officials in the House of Representatives,² the Senate,³ and the White House⁴ have voiced concerns about the President's ability to lead the country. Recent reporting has revealed a White House in disarray, and one former Biden aide has said that "Annie [Tomasini], Ashley [Williams] and Anthony [Bernal] create a protective bubble around" President Biden, and the President is "staffed so closely that he's lost all independence."⁵ Ms. Tomasini specifically has been identified as having uncharacteristic access to even the President's personal residence and has taken steps since early in President Biden's term to "rope off" the President.⁶

The Committee is therefore investigating the scope of Ms. Tomasini's responsibilities within the White House. In particular, based on the reports discussed above, it appears as though Ms. Tomasini has firsthand knowledge of the extent to which President Biden is personally carrying out the duties of his office and whether he is capable of doing so. The Committee seeks this information to explore whether the time has come for Congress to revisit potential legislation to address the oversight of presidents' fitness to serve pursuant to its authority under Section 4 of the Twenty-Fifth Amendment.⁷

The nature and scope of Ms. Tomasini's duties have long been of interest to the Committee. Ms. Tomasini was one of several White House officials to visit the Penn Biden Center for Diplomacy and Global Engagement before the "discovery" of classified materials at the same location in November 2022.⁸ Indeed, the Committee previously sought testimony from Ms. Tomasini about President Biden's mishandling of classified materials and whether the White House led an effort to cover up the President's actions or mislead the American people about them.⁹ However, the White House has refused to allow Ms. Tomasini to testify.¹⁰

Now, the Committee is concerned that Ms. Tomasini may be running interference on behalf of the President and perhaps doing some of the President's job for him. Howard Dean, the former Democratic National Committee Chairman recently stated that "Joe Biden has a very good team around him who knows what they're doing. They've done a great job running the country["]."¹¹ Given public reporting that White House staff have "aggressively stage-managed" the President and are focusing "on minute details" to "minimize signs of how age has taken a toll on the oldest president in U.S. history,"¹² and in light of Ms. Tomasini's proximity to the President, the Committee seeks to understand the extent of Ms. Tomasini's influence over the President and her knowledge of whether the President is personally discharging the duties of his office.

The Committee is concerned that Ms. Tomasini appears to be one of several White House staffers who have taken it upon themselves to run the country while the President cannot. To be clear, the American people did not elect Ms. Tomasini or any White House staffer to do President Biden's job for him, and the Committee seeks Ms. Tomasini's testimony regarding the matters identified above.

Please contact staff by July 17, 2024, to discuss the deposition.
