NARRATIVE

On Friday, September 4th, 2026, I, Det. Kirkbride met with Christopher Clancy in the SPSC lobby. Mr. Clancy wished to report an audio recording of a male who he believed to be himself. Mr. Clancy was notified of the recording which was published to an Instagram account utilizing the username "saltylunatics". The recording was "posted" to the account page on August 30th, 2026. The Instagram account is public. I utilized a law enforcement account to view the post.

The video begins with an unidentified female who states the following while speaking into the camera:

"So, you guys voted and Patrick said yes. So, at the trial Kevin Reddington released Patrick's phone number and one of y'all decided to give him a call. Now on this particular call, Patrick's dad was still on the line, he was kind of mumbling still on the phone, I guess he didn' t know that the phone was still going, the person was still On Friday, September 4th, 2026, I, Det. The Instagram account is public. I utilized a law enforcement account to view the post.

The video continues with an audio recording of what sounds like an adult male speaking; however, the language is mostly unintelligible. Mr. Clancy believes the male voice to be his own. Mr. Clancy recalls while driving in the Town of Scituate sometime around August 6th, 2026 he received a phone call from a telephone number he did not recognize. Instead of declining the incoming call; he believes he accidently answered, creating an open line of communication for the unknown calling party who proceeded to record Mr. Clancy's comments without his knowledge or consent. Mr. Clancy recognized some of his comments as being in regard to his eldest son Brian. He does not recall knowingly speaking to someone over the phone when these comments were made, nor was he made aware of his comments being recorded.

On Thursday, September 17th, 2026 a search warrant (Dkt. #2658SW0080) was issued out of the Hingham District Court authorizing for a search of records generated under the Instagram account "saltylunatics". On this same day, I served this search warrant electronically to Meta Platforms Inc. via their law enforcement portal. On Friday, September 25th, 2026 I received an electronic copy of records via my department issued email. The records revealed the name of the account holder as Shawna Leigh Gramkow [redacted] confirmed the identity of Ms. Gramkow through her Florida Driver's License ([redacted]). Based on the photograph associated with the driver's license, I further confirmed Ms. Gramkow to be the same female talking in the above referenced Instagram video. Lastly, a copy of the video was included in the return of records, confirming the video was published by the Instagram account "saltylunatics".

Based on the aforementioned facts, I am respectfully seeking a criminal complaint for a violation of M.G.L. Ch. 272 Sec. 99 Unlawful Wiretap.
