4. ELECTRONIC EVIDENCE

a. Electronic Recordings (CPL § 245.20[1][g])

☒ If checked, the following electronic recordings were made or received in connection with the alleged criminal incident and have been disclosed as follows (or will be disclosed if the recordings are not currently in the People's possession). The People currently intend to introduce these recordings at trial or at a pre-trial hearing.

i. Police Radio Run – disclosed.
ii. Videotaped statement – disclosed.
iii. Body Worn Camera video – disclosed.
iv. Surveillance Video – disclosed.

The People currently intend to introduce the above-noted electronic recordings at a future hearing or trial.

b. Electronic Information (CPL § 245.20[1][u])

☒ If checked, the People possess electronically created or stored information seized or obtained by or on behalf of law enforcement from the defendant as described in CPL § 245.20(1)(u)(ii), or from a source other than the defendant, which relates to the subject matter of the charges against the defendant in the instant case or a defense thereto. Said information has been disclosed as follows (or will be disclosed if the information is not currently in the People's possession):

i. Defendant's cell phone data – Not currently in People's Possession.
ii. Various other electronic information will be turned over when search warrants are complied with/executed.

5. PHYSICAL EVIDENCE

a. Defendant / Co-defendant Property (CPL § 245.20[1][m])

☒ If checked, the following tangible objects were obtained from or possessed by the defendant or a co-defendant in connection with this case. Any item not listed as recovered from the defendant's or a co-defendant's person was constructively possessed by the defendant and/or co-defendants. Unless otherwise noted, the items listed below were recovered either at or about the time of the defendant or co-defendant's arrest and/or during a search of persons or places by a public servant or an agent thereof. The People currently intend to introduce this property at trial or at a pre-trial hearing.

Where the People have indicated that they intend to rely on a statutory presumption regarding possession of any property, the People may also argue that the defendant or a co-defendant additionally had physical or constructive possession of said property. The People do not concede here that the defendant or any co-defendant has standing to contest the seizure of any evidence based on an indication here of reliance upon a statutory presumption.

b. Other Tangible Property (CPL § 245.20[1][o])

☒ If checked, there exists tangible property, in addition to any property already disclosed pursuant to CPL § 245.20(1)(m), that may relate to the subject matter of this case. The People currently intend to introduce this property at trial or at a pre-trial hearing.

6. FURTHER DISCLOSURES

a. Brady/Giglio/Geaslen Information (CPL § 245.20[1][k])

☐ If checked, the People have disclosed information pursuant to the United States Constitution and/or the New York State Constitution, and/or provided information that relates to the subject matter of the case and tends to negate the defendant's guilt as to a charged offense, reduce the degree of or mitigate the defendant's culpability as to a charged offense, support a potential defense to a charged offense, impeach the credibility of a testifying prosecution witness, undermine evidence of the defendant's identity as the perpetrator of a charged offense, provide a basis for a motion to suppress evidence, or mitigate punishment.

Although this section is entitled "Brady/Giglio/Geaslen Information," the People do not concede that the information disclosed or referenced herein necessarily constitutes Brady/Giglio/Geaslen or other similar information. The People reserve the right to object to, or to move in limine to prevent, the admission into evidence of, or the questioning of witnesses about, these matters. Furthermore, there may be materials and information otherwise disclosed and not separately highlighted that could constitute Brady/Giglio/Geaslen information under this paragraph.

☐ If checked, the People have a request pending for the above-described material. Where such information or materials has been obtained, it has been disclosed and is referenced above. However, some aspects of this search may be ongoing due to the significant volume of prosecutor requests. As any discoverable material becomes available, the People will produce it as soon as practicable.

Note that pursuant to section 7-114 of Local Law 166 of 2017, the New York City Law Department makes available to the public on its website information on civil actions alleging misconduct by the New York City Police Department and its individual officers. See https://www1.nyc.gov/site/law/public-resources/nyc-administrative-code-7-114.page

b. Computer Offenses (CPL § 245.20[1][t])

☐ If checked, disclosure is hereby made of the time, place, and manner of a violation of Unauthorized Use of a Computer (Penal Law § 156.05) or Computer Trespass (Penal Law § 156.10):

c. Other Disclosures

☐ If checked, disclosure is hereby made of the following information or materials not otherwise included in other sections of this document.

d. Lost or Destroyed Documents

☐ If checked, disclosure is hereby made of the following materials or documents that have been destroyed or, despite diligent, good faith efforts to locate the items, lost.

e. Redactions (CPL § 245.20[6])

☒ If checked, the People have redacted information and/or other content from disclosed material without a protective order. The redacted information and/or other content may include, but is not necessarily limited to, one or more of the following:

i. Social security numbers, tax numbers, and/or the physical addresses or other forms of contact information of potential witnesses. Such information is redacted pursuant to CPL § 245.20(6). For any witness disclosed under CPL § 245.20(1)(c), the People have provided at least one form of adequate contact information. If such adequate contact information has not been provided, or if the contact information disclosed is incorrect or inoperative, defense counsel should contact the assigned assistant. The People's compliance with CPL § 245.20(1)(c) is detailed in a separate addendum served on defense counsel.

ii. Information and/or content not required to be disclosed under CPL § 245.20(1) because it is not designated for initial disclosure under paragraphs (a) through (u) of CPL § 245.20(1), and is not otherwise relevant to the subject matter of the charge or charges against the defendant in the instant case or a defense thereto pursuant to CPL § 245.20(1)(v).

f. Potential In-Court Identifications (People v. Perdue)

☒ If checked, the People intend to call the following witness(es), who may identify the defendant in court, with whom a previous out-of-court identification procedure has not been conducted, or who made a previous out-of-court identification under circumstances where CPL § 710.30(1) notice is not required by law.

Any and all witnesses mentioned in the discovery provided to the defense. If other such witnesses arise, we will notify the defense.

☐ If checked, the People intend to call one or more witnesses who may identify the defendant in court, with whom no previous out-of-court identification procedure has been conducted, or where a previous out-of-court identification was made under circumstances where CPL § 710.30(1) notice is not required by law. The identity of at least one such witness is protected by CPL § 245.10(1)(a)(iv)(A), CPL § 245.20(1)(c), an order pursuant to CPL § 245.70, or other order of the Court. Additional information regarding the identity of such witness(es) will be provided at the time prescribed by law.

C. PROTECTIVE ORDERS

☒ If checked, the People will file one or more motions for a protective order pursuant to CPL § 245.70. Therefore, under CPL §§ 245.10(1)(a), 245.20(5), and 245.70, the People have withheld, or requested an extension of the time period for discovery of, potentially discoverable materials pending, or pursuant to, a ruling of the Court. The particular paragraphs of CPL § 245.20 pursuant to which the information would otherwise be discoverable are noted, where applicable, within this document. The discoverable portions of such materials have been disclosed to the extent practicable.

D. SUPPLEMENTAL DISCOVERY - SANDOVAL

☒ If checked, notice is hereby served, pursuant to CPL § 245.20(3), that all information found within the defendant's NY and III e-justice record, including, but not limited to, the defendant's name and/or aliases, date of birth,addresses, complete record of arrests, convictions, sentences, and the facts related thereto, will be the subject of a Sandoval motion should this case proceed to trial. Should the People learn of other misconduct and criminal acts that we intend to include in a future Sandoval motion, those will be disclosed in accordance with CPL § 245.10(1)(b).

E. RECIPROCAL DISCOVERY

Pursuant to CPL § 245.10(2) and § 245.20(4), the People request that, within 30 days of being served with the People's certificate of compliance, the defendant disclose, and permit discovery, inspection, copying, or photography (if applicable) of, the following items:

1. Expert opinion evidence, including the name, the business address, a current curriculum vitae, a list of publications, and all proficiency tests and results administered or taken within the past ten years of each expert witness whom the defendant intends to call at trial or a pre-trial hearing, and all reports prepared by the expert that pertain to the case; or, if no report is prepared, a written statement of the facts and opinions to which the expert is expected to testify and a summary of the grounds for each opinion.

2. All tapes or other electronic recordings, including all electronic recordings of 911 telephone calls made or received in connection with the alleged criminal incident, and a designation by the defense as to which of the recordings the defendant intends to introduce at trial or a pre-trial hearing.

3. If the sum total of recordings is longer than ten hours, it is requested that the defense disclose the recordings the defense intends to introduce at trial or a pre-trial hearing, along with a list of the source and approximate quantity of other recordings and their general subject matter, if known.

4. All photographs and drawings that relate to the subject matter of the charges against the defendant in the instant case or a defense thereto, made or completed by a public servant engaged in law enforcement activity, or which were made by a person whom the defendant intends to call as a witness at trial or a pre-trial hearing.

5. All reports, documents, records, data, calculations or writings, including but not limited to preliminary tests and screening results and bench notes and analyses performed or stored electronically, concerning physical or mental examinations, or scientific tests or experiments or comparisons, relating to the criminal action or proceeding which were made by a person whom the defendant intends to call as a witness at trial or a pre-trial hearing, or which the defendant intends to introduce at trial or a pre-trial hearing, including, but not limited to, laboratory information management system records relating to such materials, any preliminary or final findings of nonconformance with accreditation, industry or governmental standards or laboratory protocols, and any conflicting analyses or results by laboratory personnel regardless of the laboratory's final analysis or results.

6. A summary of all promises, rewards, and inducements made in connection with the instant case to, or in favor of, persons who may be called as witnesses, as well as requests for consideration by persons who may be called as witnesses, and copies of all documents relevant to a promise, reward, or inducement.

7. All tangible property that relates to the subject matter of the case, along with a designation of which of those items the defendant intends to introduce in its case-in-chief at trial or a pre-trial hearing.

8. The names, addresses, birth dates, and all statements, written or recorded or summarized in any writing or recording, of those persons (other than the defendant) whom the defendant intends to call as witnesses at trial or a pre-trial hearing.

F. ADDITIONAL DISCOVERY / NOTICE

In the interest of open, reciprocal discovery, and to the extent permissible under statutory and constitutional law, the People request the following additional disclosures and/or notices:

1. To the extent that the defendant believes that the discovery provided by the People is incomplete, provide the assigned assistant, within 35 days of the filing of the People's certificate of compliance, with a specific and particularized list of the materials believed to be missing and in the possession, custody, or control of the prosecution or persons under the prosecution's direction or control, and describe how they relate to the subject matter of the case, relate to the subject matter of the charges against the defendant (or co-defendant) in the instant case or a defense thereto, or connect to the instant case or criminal proceeding.

2. The names of, and adequate contact information for, all persons not listed in the Witness Name and Contact section whom the defendant knows to have evidence or information relevant to any offense charged or any potential defense thereto, and all statements, written or recorded, or summarized in any writing or recording, for those persons.

3. To the extent that the defendant has served or intends to serve notice of intent to introduce psychiatric evidence pursuant to CPL § 250.10(1), timely written notice of such intention, and any and all documentation and information relevant to a proper assessment of whether the introduction of such evidence is legally proper.

4. To the extent that the defendant intends to assert that the defendant should be sentenced to an alternative sentence pursuant to CPL § 60.12, any statements, documents, or material in support of such assertion.

5. To the extent that the defendant is in possession of information that mitigates the defendant's culpability or is otherwise relevant to the question of sentence, early notice of such information. If the defendant wishes to have an opportunity to speak with the assigned assistant to discuss any factor relevant to culpability or sentence, the defendant or defense counsel should contact the assigned assistant.

NOTES: Information related to civilian, police, and expert witnesses, discoverable pursuant to CPL §§ 245.20(1)(c), 245.20(1)(d), 245.20(1)(f), 245.20(1)(k), 245.20(1)(l), 245.20(1)(p), and 245.20(1)(q), is contained in a separate addendum served on defense counsel. Any defense motion or request addressed to the above-captioned case should be directed to the attention of the Assistant District Attorney named below, who is assigned to this case.
